

Columbia NANBPW sponsors

FEB. 27, 1982

BALTO. AFRO-AMERICAN

Black History Fair

The National Association Of Negro Business and Professional Woman, Columbia Chapter is sponsoring a Black History Fair, Saturday, Feb. 27, to be held at the Columbia Mall.

The Fair is the culmination of an alliance initiated by N.B.P. W. last fall when Black organizations were called together to join in planning an activity for Black History Fair.

Myrtle Jackson, first vice president of the organization is coordinator of the alliance.

Other sponsoring organizations and their representatives who are planning the Fair are Alpha Wives, Adopt Minority Children, Inc. Terri Kendrix; Concerned Parents, Inc. Irma McNeal; Kappa Silhouettes, Hilda Wallace; NAACP, Ruth Edwards.

Other member of NANBPW working with the alliance are: Jackie

Banks, Sylvia Cooke Martin and Celeste Uzzell.

Contributions and works of local and nationally known Black artists and leaders will be focused upon includes; Carolyn Briscoe, whose art work will be on exhibit; Rae C. Ross (Hari Dam Kaur) Columbia, New York and Stuttgart, Germany, (picture of her performance will be on display) and Celonia Walden (youngest) book of Poetry will be on display and she will also read:

Also Joanne Lee and Rossalyn Penn.

The AFR O AMERICAN Newspaper, the oldest Black Newspaper in the country, will participate in the Fair.

Mrs. Ethel B. Hill is president of the Columbia Chapter, N.B.P. W.

OFFICERS
Benjamin Quarles
Chairman Emeritus
Dr. Louis R. Harlan
Acting Chairman

MEMBERS
Pearl C. Brackett
M. Lucia James
Mary S. Johnson
Earl Koger, Sr.
Richard V. Landis
Roland C. McConnell
Verda F. Welcome
Angeline F. Williams

ADVISORY COMMITTEE
James A. Addy
Frederick Breitenfeld, Jr.
Walter R. Dean
Bettye J. Gardnor
B. Floyd Flickinger
Herbert M. Frisby
Viola Jackson
Joseph W. Neale
Edward C. Papenfuse
Morgan H. Pritchett
Morris L. Radoff
Bettye C. Thomas
J. Alexander Wiseman

Maryland Commission on Afro-American History and Culture

20 Dean Street
Annapolis, Maryland 21401
269-1893

Baltimore Program
12 West Madison Street
Baltimore, Maryland 21201
383-3648