

Compiled December 1938 by Rosamond Randall Beirne from family papers, parties, and personal observation.

John Randall and Deborah Knapp of Annapolis

1754 - 1826 M. Jan. 7 1783 1763 - 1852

John Randall was born in King George Co., Va., the 13th child of Thomas, a planter, Justice of the Peace, vestryman of North Farnham Parish, and Jane Davis, his wife. He moved to Annapolis, Md. in 1768 where he worked with Wm. Buckland, architect. Appointed Commissary to Md. troops Feb. 1778 and State Clothier 1779 and served with army, rank of Colonel. Entered mercantile business at close of war. Collector of Port, Mayor, Vestryman of St. Anne's Parish.

