Baltimore July 25th 1814

Accept my thanks my dear Sir for your Orator, which I have read with great pleasure, and high praise, not only for its merits, but also, and I may add still more, as a proof of your remembrance and regard. It also afforded me particular satisfaction to see you called upon, or put on our side; a call which proves the estimation in which you are held, by the most enlightened and well judging portion of the American people.

With great regard and the best wishes

I am Dear Sir

Your most obed<sup>t</sup> serv<sup>t</sup>

Rob: G. Harper
