EWSH - CHAIRMAN Publicity - Ocean Science News - Editor
1st Governor's Conference on the Chesapeake Bay
Wye Mills Institute - Wye Mills, Md. September 1968

The State finally getting concerned about pollution Killing The Bay.

We were living on Kent Island at the time overlooking Eastern Bay. EWSH had oyster and crabbing licenses which he used. Did a lot of fishing, photographing Skiff Fleet (t 24 vessels), winter birds, moonlight sojourns, entertaining house guests and a trip we took to N. Carolina through the Intracoastal Waterway on a business trip in our old Deddrise fishing boat "Miss Nancy" Lived there from 1966 to 1982 when moved to S. Carolina - Columbia, EWSH to Coles Rd. House and me to open and manage The Carolina as resident manager.
