Lawrence Bell and Martin O'Malley Working Together for Baltimore's Future

- ◆ Together, Bell and O'Malley won passage of a tough new curfew law that holds parents responsible for their kids.
- ◆ Together, Bell and O'Malley uncovered a $6 million surplus in the Police Department -- the result of a shortsighted hiring freeze in a year of record homicides.
- ◆ Together, Bell and O'Malley were the only two Council members with the guts to call for new leadership in our police department and a tougher strategy for closing down open-air drug markets.
- ◆ Together, Bell and O'Malley sponsored legislation imposing a mandatory jail sentence on anyone who buys drugs from a minor.
- ◆ Together, Bell and O'Malley fought for better pay for rank-and-file police officers.
- ◆ Together, Bell and O'Malley are pushing for the creation of Baltimore's first juvenile justice center.

"Martin O'Malley and Lawrence Bell have been the most effective team our City Council has seen in years. Let's keep them working together for Baltimore's future."

- Parren Mitchell

LAWRENCE BELL WILL BE A LEADER AS COUNCIL PRESIDENT

As a two-term City Councilman, Lawrence Bell has never been afraid to challenge business as usual to make a safer Baltimore.

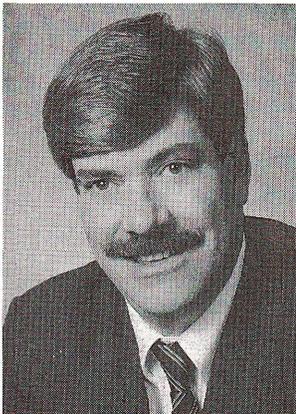

As Chairman of the Public Safety Committee, Lawrence Bell demanded new leadership and greater accountability from police leaders. Bell was the catalyst behind the Police Department's tougher strategy on open-air drug markets. A strong supporter of the new curfew law, Bell is pushing for tough mandatory penalties for those who buy drugs from children.

As City Council President, he'll work hard to make Baltimore a safer and more affordable place for all of us to live and work.

Bell has been endorsed by Fraternal Order of Police, AFL-CIO, Baltimore City League of Environmental Voters.

BOB CURRAN WILL WORK HARD FOR ALL OF US

Bob Curran has worked at Domino Sugar for 15 years, currently employed as a frontline Process Foreman. He will bring a working person's perspective to the City Council.

Bob Curran has shown leadership through his service as Vice Chair of the Baltimore City Democratic State Central Committee and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Maryland State Democratic Party.

Bob Curran is an advocate for: taking action on gun violence, guaranteeing each student a new opportunity to learn in a safe, non-disruptive environment and finding long term remedies for drug abuse problems.

Bob Curran has been endorsed by Metropolitan Baltimore Council AFL-CIO Unions, Fraternal Order of Police, Baltimore City Fire Fighters/Fire Officers, League of Environmental Voters, Senators McFadden (45th), Pica (43rd), Delegates Davis (45th), Curran (43rd), Doory (43rd), Montague (43rd).

MARTIN O'MALLEY IS A POSITIVE FORCE FOR CHANGE

As your Councilman, Martin O'Malley has made a difference. O'Malley, a former prosecutor, knows what it takes to fight crime. O'Malley uncovered a $6 million surplus in our Police Department - the result of a short-sighted hiring freeze in a year of record homicides. O'Malley authored and passed the tough new curfew law.

Martin O'Malley is reforming government by pursuing corruption in the Housing Authority, fighting against unnecessary tax increases and eliminating government waste. This year he moved to cut $2 million from the City's outside lawyer fund in order to fund better recreation programs for our children..

Martin O'Malley has been endorsed by Fraternal Order of Police, AFL-CIO, League of Environmental Voters and Fire Officers and Fire Fighters.
