Old Business:-

Mr. McAnally reported that his pigeon traps had not been effective. After much discussion it was decided to give the traps another chance. Mr. Raymond Lee is to contact the Police Dept. and the S.P.C.A. to see if we may get permission to shoot them. If permission is granted Mr. Lee will see that the pigeons are disposed of.

The light at the back of the Church has been installed.

Mr. Earl Chaney reported that Miss Nancy Hornes will do the art work on the financial campaign.

The garage has been repaired by Mr. McAnally and Mr. Shanklin.

New Business:-

1- Rev. Wright reported on the Contract of Sale for the new property. The Union Trust Co. has approved the loan by a renewable 90 day note. It is necessary to have a meeting of the Trustees to have the Title searched and to make settlement of the property.

2- After a discussion on the Church Bulletin whether to have colored pictures or the same as this year; a motion was made and passed that we get a years supply of Spalding's bulletins alternating the exterior and interior pictures of the Church.

3- Rev. Wright asked everyone to help in keeping all parts of the Church tidy.

4- A motion to let Rev. Wright use some extra doors to make a tree house for the children was made and carried.

5- Rev. Wright expressed his appreciation to Tracy Huster for making the cabinet in which to store the Projectors.

6- Mrs. Vondersmith appointed Rev. Wright, Mrs. Earl Chaney and Mrs. Harry Kay as the Nominating Committee for the Official Board. They are to nominate the officers for the next year at the July meeting.

7- A motion was made, seconded, and passed to hold the next meeting on July 10th.

8- Conference convenes on June 14th. Rev. Wright and Mr. Jesse McAnally will attend.

9- Mr. Earl Chaney suggested the by-laws be amended to read - Article 5 section 3 - Quote; "It is herein expressly provided that duly elected officers may succeed themselves in office, but in no event shall an officer or officers, except the Treasurer continue to hold the same office more than three consecutive terms." After considerable discussion a motion to make the change was passed.

10- A motion was made, seconded and passed to combine the duties of the Building Fund Treasurer with that of the Current and Benevolence Treasurer. The Nominating Committee was instructed to nominate a Financial Secretary to assist the Treasurer.

11- A request was made for the Chairman or some appointed member of each of the Commissions meet with the Commission on Education. The purpose was to see if the Commission on Education may be able to help in presenting the total work of the Church through the Sunday School.

These being no further business a motion to adjourn was passed.

Old Business

1. The Trustees met and took the necessary steps for the loan. Mr. Allewolt reported that we are now waiting for the Realty Co. to relocate the right of way. By the end of the week we should be able to make settlement. A committee to look over the property to determine what to do about the barn is Mrs. Geist, Mr. Meekins and Mr. McAnally.
2. The Bulletins have been ordered.

3. There has not been very much improvement in keeping the Church tidy.
4. The Nominating committee nominated the following officers for 61-62

Chairman - Mr. Harry Vondersmith
Vice ~~President~~ Chairman - Mr. Wm. K. Lee
Secretary - Mr. Chester Whitten
Treasurer - Mr. Charles Sullivan

They were unanimously elected and the committee granted permission to select a nominee to serve as Financial Secretary until the next Official Board meeting when he can be elected by approval of the Board.
5. Rev. Wright reported that the apportionments and askings are being explained at a meeting at Wesley Church this evening. Tracey Huster is is our representative.
In telling of the conference Rev. Wright said that the Washington Conference was invited into the Northeast Jurisdiction. The need for a nursing home was cited. The Conference felt that we should have one, but that we should not accept Federal Funds to obtain it.
6. The Planning Committee will meet on July 17th.

New Business:-

1. It will be necessary to move one of the Church road signs since a filling station is being built there.

2- A motion was made and seconded to dispose of some broken chairs stored in the garage to our best advantage. It was passed.

3- A motion to exchange the desk in the Large Sunday School room for the one in the garage was passed. It will need some refinishing.

4- Because of Mr. Corroum's death it will be necessary to have a new Trustee nominated by the Church Nominating Committee or the minister; to be submitted at a Fourth Quarterly Conference. The Board desires the Nominating Committee to make the nomination at the August meeting and declared that this meeting to be the Fourth Quarterly Conference.

5- Since there is a need for old Hymnals at our Church Camps it was decided to send our old unused Hymnals to the Camps.

Since there was no further business a motion to adjourn was passed.

Old Business:

The base board and railing in the church were referred to the building committee.

A check for $100 was sent to Rev. Malcomb Wright.

The Building Fund was discussed as to pledges. John Shanklin said he thought we were behind about $10,000. The building and architects fees were also mentioned. A lengthy discussion ensued as to delinquent pledges and what should be done about them. It was decided that some sort of action would be taken, but nothing definite was planned.

New Business:

① The new budget was mentioned but the committee did not have it on hand.

② It was decided that Mrs. John Zinkler who took over the Jr. Choir for Caroline, would receive the same salary as Caroline unless recommended otherwise by the Music Committee.

③ Marguerite Maynard spoke about the Layman's Retreat and asked if anyone else could go along with her.

④ John Wright made a motion that the expense of $14.50 for the Layman's Retreat be paid by the Benevolence Fund. The motion was seconded and carried.

⑤ The subject of the pastor's vacation was brought up and a motion was made, seconded and carried to give the Pastor the 2nd, 3rd 4th and 5th Sundays for his vacation in August. The Committee on Pastoral Relations will decide on guest ministers along with the pastor and secure them.

⑥ The possible change of time for the early service was brought up by Rev. Current. He suggested changing the 8:30 service to 9:30 to coincide with the Sunday School hour. It was suggested that the Board members think it over and talk about it to other people to get some other views on it, and then bring it up at the next Official Board meeting and decide what to do.

⑦ Rev. Current reported on meetings with the architect, and told of changes being made in the plans.

⑧ He ~~and~~ also reported that the property behind the church belonging to the Board of Education may be available for purchase. They are supposedly willing to let go of this property and Norman Meekins showed a topographical map of this area. A motion was made that the Board of Trustees be authorized to explore the possibilities of securing this property and the price. This was seconded and passed.

⑨ The problem of the loose floor board and railing in the church was referred to the Property Committee.

⑩ Rev. Current brought up the idea of renting the annex out as apartments. It was decided to let the idea go at this point and it was not discussed.

⑪ Norman Meekins gave a report on the costs involved in planning the new building.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned.

Old Business:

① John Shanklin gave a report on pledges for the Building Fund. He thinks them to be about $ 7,000 behind. There was a long discussion during which Carl Chaney explained the shortages. He also commented that the overall picture was not bad. Action had been taken by means of a letter to the delinquent pledges and this produced some results.

② Carl Chaney presented the new budget and a motion was made that the proposed budget as submitted by the Chairman of the Finance Committee be accepted. This was discussed, then seconded and passed.

③ There was a discussion on the pro's and con's of changing the Church hour from 8:30 to 9:30. A motion was made to begin a trial run of having the service time changed from 8:30 A.M. to 9:30 A.M. for a period of 6 months beginning on the first Sunday in October. This motion was passed.

④ Mr. McAnally will attend to fixing the loose boards and railing in the church.

New Business:

① Rev. Current gave a report on the architects proceedings.

② Rev. Current brought up the matter of purchasing the Board of Education property behind our church. He presented the pro's and con's on this area and suggested that a Quarterly Conference be held to authorize an investigation of this property with the option of buying it if approved. This plan was not approved by the Board and it was decided instead to go ahead with previous plans to let the Trustees investigate this property further.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Old Business:

① Mr. McAnally has fixed the boards and railing in the church.

New Business:

① The apportionments for the churches were read. Official action could not be taken without a Quarterly Conference.

② A motion was passed to have the September Official Board meeting on August 31 instead of September 7th which is Labor Day.

③ Rev. Current told of his broken lawnmower. A motion was passed to have the mower fixed. The Property Committee will take care of this.

④ Maneyle Warrington suggested that the mimeograph be looked over. It was suggested that she call Baltimore Mimeograph Co. to see if they could fix it up.

⑤ It was brought to the attention of the Board that secretarial help would be needed in the church office this Fall. A notice will be put in the bulletin calling attention to this need.

⑥ Tracey Hunter asked about where he was to put the Building Fund's next $10,000. A motion was passed to let the Finance Commission select a federally insured savings + loan institution to start a new account.

* Mr. Allwarth presented the bill from the architect. A motion was passed to pay this bill.

Old Business:

① The lawnmower at the parsonage is being repaired.

② The mimeograph machine has been repaired.

New Business:

① Mr. Geist reported on our building progress. Bids on the building are to go out on November 24th and are to be back on December 17th. Building should begin in the early Spring. Mr. Allewalt asked if anyone had arranged for the financing. It was decided that this will be taken care of by the Trustees. A letter will be sent to each church member family explaining about the building progress.

② Tracey Hunter asked about the Organist's salary. (Miles Kahler, organist) It had been $10 during the summer months. Since he came on Thursday of each week during August, it was decided to pay him $12 for those weeks.

③ Layman's Sunday will be on October 11th. Don Allewalt has consented to preach.

④ There will be a Convocation on Human Relations on October 16 to + 17th for two or more representatives from each church. A motion was passed to pay the $5 fee for whoever will go.

⑤ The District Board of Lay Activities will meet at Glyndon Methodist Church on October 27th.

⑥ A Financial Secretary has not been secured as yet. Mr. William Dixon will take a turn counting money every third Sunday.

Old Business:

① It was reported that the parsonage lawnmower cannot be repaired.

② The Layman's Sunday worship service is being arranged by Lay Leader, Mrs. Marguerite Maynard.

③ Rev. Current reported on the Convocation on Human Relations.

New Business:

① Rev. Current read a letter from the architect regarding the dates when the plans for the new building would be ready. November 15th - Working Plans ... November 11-18 - Correcting ... November 19-23 - Printing & Bidding ... November 24 - December 15 Bidding by contractors ... December 15 - All bids received.

Old Business:

① The Urgent Needs fund seems to be falling down in the amount of money being taken in. The reason seems to be that people are not marking their envelopes. The money is going into the Benevolence Fund and there is no way to distinguish between these two funds unless the envelope pocket is marked accordingly. A note will be put into the bulletin and a congregational letter will be sent asking that contributors be more accurate in designating where they want their money to go.

② The new bulletins have been ordered.

New Business:

① The Advent folders will go out in December. A motion was passed that this money go entirely to Current Expenses.

② Norman Meskins reported that the plans for the new building will be ready on November 10th. Official Board members are invited to the Building Committee meeting on that evening for the purpose of viewing these plans.

③ The exterior trim and woodwork of the building are in need of paint. A motion was passed authorizing the Property Committee to obtain bids on the painting.

④ A motion was passed to raise the salary of the organist, Miles Kahler, to $ 13.50 per week.

⑤ The problem of parking on Sunday on the lot was discussed. Norman Meskins and Chester Whitten will observe the problem and decide about a solution.

Old Business:

① The Finance Commission is investigating several savings + loan institutions to deposit the next $10,000 received for Building Fund.

② Norman Meekins reported on traffic conditions on the parking lot during church time on Sunday.

③ There was a discussion about fixing the parking lot before the new construction begins. A motion was passed authorizing Norman Meekins to fix the upper end of the lot.

④ The question of what to do with the cemetery garage was discussed. It was agreed to let the Trustees take care of it.

⑤ It was reported that the outside painting was under way.

New Business:

① The plans for the new building arrived. The bidders were told to pick up the specifications. The bids are to be back by December 21st. Seven bidders have been asked to submit. Five are expected to be received.

② A motion was passed that a Coke machine be installed in the Annex in an attempt to keep the young people at the church between Sunday School and the late service. The machine will be sponsored by the Senior High M.Y.F. and they will be responsible for the machine.

③ A motion was passed to pay the minister's way to the Buckhill Falls Minister's Retreat.

④ Mr. Giest brought up the problem of the bad sidewalk in front of the church. A motion was passed to have it fixed. Norman Meekins will take care of it.

⑤ Mr. Chaney reported on the Trustees meeting of November 8th. The Provident Savings Bank will make a loan of approximately $75,000 at 5½% for the new building. Other institutions had been investigated, but application has been made with Provident.

⑥ Mr. Geist fixed the windows in the back Sunday School rooms.

⑦ The stained glass windows in the church are in need of repair. Rev. Current was authorized to have them fixed when the company which does this work is again in this area.

⑧ Mrs. Chaney reported that there doesn't seem to be a need for a nursery during the 11:00 service. It was decided to discontinue the nursery for a period of time, unless it was again needed.

⑨ A check was received from the W. S. C. S. toward the outside painting of the church.

① A motion was passed to approve the Lenten Services to be held as in previous years.

② A motion was passed that the Lenten offering be put in the Current Expence Fund.

③ The Quarterly Conference has been scheduled for April 30th.

④ It was reported that the bids had been received and reviewed by the Building Committee. Mr. Lee Palmer of Buchart Associates contacted the lowest bidder, Wm. H. Sands, Co., for a contract price of $137,979 which may be adjusted downward. Furnishings are not included in this price. The base bids before alterations were as follows:

W. H. Ward - $142,000 ... E. E. Steller - $139,900
Lawrence - $153,330 ... Wm. H. Sands - $137,700

The Building Committee recommended that the Board accept the figure of $137,979 and award the contract to the Wm. H. Sands, Co., as follows:

Resolution

"At the regularly called meeting of the Official Board of the Reisterstown Methodist Church conducted on January 11, 1965 on the Church premises located at 246 Main Street, Reisterstown, Maryland, it was regularly moved, seconded and passed:

'That the Board of Trustees be and the same are hereby authorized to enter into contract with William H. Sands Incorporated, builders, for the construction of a Fellowship Hall, Church School Rooms and renovation of a portion of existing Church School facilities at and for the base bid of $137,979.00.'

'It was further moved, seconded and passed that the Board of Trustees be and the same are hereby authorized to enter into a mortgage with the Provident Savings Bank in the amount of $85,000.00, on terms of 5 1/4% interest per annum on the declining balance method, for a period of ten (10) years, provided said mortgage contains provision that the principal balance may be prepaid in whole or part at any time without penalty.'

"Certified true and correct."

(5) The painting bill for $957.25 was authorized to be paid.

(6) The architech's bill for $1,417.50 was authorized to be paid.

(7) A motion was passed authorizing the expense for moving the cemetery garage to be paid from the Building Fund.

(8) A motion was passed to give the Preparatory Class members a small token from the Church upon being received into membership.

Old Business:

① Rev. Current reported on the contact he made with the Bishop concerning the Consecration Service upon completion of the new building. We are awaiting an answer from the Bishop. There was a discussion concerning the possibility of having a full week of special services before the consecration. It was decided to wait for the Bishop's answer before making a decision about this.

② A motion was passed to have a ground-breaking service, corner-stone laying service and a consecration service in connection with the construction of our new building.

③ Dr Allwalt reported that the contract hasn't yet been signed. This is needed so that the bank will have proof that there is an agreement between the church and the contractor, and so that interest will not begin to accumulate before building begins. A phone call to Lee Palmer brought the information that the contract is in York, Pennsylvania in the office of Buchart Associates being examined.

New Business:

① A motion was passed that a citation from the Methodist Publishing House be framed and appropriately hung.

② A motion was passed to let the Commission on Education select the committee to prepare a list of equipment and furnishings for the new building to be first submitted to the Building Committee and then to the Official Board for final approval. This list will be posted so that groups in the church who are already collecting money for these items may choose what they will be giving.

③ Mrs. Chaney reported that the W.S.C.S. would like to secure films from the Baltimore County Library. A motion was passed authorizing her to sign a contract for this purpose in the name of the church for a 3 year period. The service will be open to all organizations of the church.

④ A motion was passed allowing a maximum of $100 to go toward the expenses of anyone attending the Middle-Atlantic Adult Convocation to be held on March 11, 12, 13 at Buckhill Falls. The entire cost per person is $45.50.

⑤ A motion was passed authorizing Norman Meekins to complete the fill on the new parking lot up to $3,500.

⑥ A motion was passed authorizing the Optimist Club of Reisterstown to use our kitchen and dining room facilities on March 13 for a Pancake Supper.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
