

HALLMAN HOMESTEAD

Farm home of the late Sam and Evelyn Hallman on Riffleford Road. Home was for many years the site of the annual Family Reunion of the Ricks/Hallman families and their friends. The tradition which began----- years ago continues at the home of younger family member on the second Sunday in August.

The Hallmans enlarged this home to accommodate their growing family. According to Mrs. Laura Talley, "When the Quince Orchard Colored School burnt down in 1901, classes were temporarily held in this house then owned by the Ricks."

