old business:

Parsonage

The elder folks at Enon have offered to moving the Community House back as it will then rest on the grass of the parsonage. Rev. Barrington hopes that he can get the sentiment of the people to build the parsonage on this side.
He then asked for suggestions as to the best place over here to build the parsonage

This was laid on the table of discussion
later

New business

1. Sig Blumner suggested that we get a new fan.

Bro Ridgley moved that we wait until next year this was agreed upon by all.

Rev. Barrington asked that Layla to make his day the 3rd Sunday in October a great day.

He also asked that he work to make Homecoming a great success.

He was glad to know that our youth got off to Morgan and he let our youth make their report at the next off. Board meeting.

He hopes that he will be able to send some of our youth to North Carolina when our youth meeting convenes for a week.

It was agreed upon by all that the church be painted inside while the church is closed for camp. It was agreed upon by all that we paint the church the same color ^{Bro. Ridgely asked that all the names} pitch in.
Rev. Barrington asked the trustees to please get the keys of the Community House at once.

Bro. Gerard Green asked that we get new pipe for the furnace.

Rev. Barrington asked that Sis. C. Jackson take an active part in our church. He hoped that later we could hire her as a Sec. However, he would like for her to take part in our youth fellowship and also our social life.

He hoped that the youth would have a roundtable discussion on Sunday evening and invite other youths.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved by Bro Green stated he needed a new grate for the furnace. It was moved by Bro Ridgley seconded by Sis S. Green voted upon and carried that a new grate be brought during the summer months.

Sis ^{Stacy} Jackson asked if we could have another Communion Steward to help in case she was late. Rev Barrington stated that our membership was too small to have over two Communion Stewards but also stated that it was fine to have dress the church on Saturday and hoped that she and Sis Hallman would work together to everything ready for Communion.

Next Sis Blummer stated that we were joining with Emory Grove in giving the pastor a banquet on April 20, 1956. She asked the men to help financially.

Next was the ~~Community~~ ^{parish} House which needs repairing. It was agreed upon by all that we began fixing the Community House. They will begin Monday March 19, 1956 at 3 PM. Those who will be present are Watson Preather, Dadel Green, Willie Ridgley, Mamie Blummer, Esther Hallman, Sarah A. Smith, Pearl Green.

Next the record player in the parish House needs repairing for the youth

It was moved by Bro Green seconded by Watson rather voted and carried that we fix the record player for the parish as soon as he here finally able

Rev. Barrington asked each member to please pay 2.00 Sunday and try to bring a neighbor or friend

Bro Green asked that we should draw from the fund 100.00 and replace after the birthday Rally April 29 and raise the bal. of 105.00

It was moved by S. Green seconded by M. Plymmer. voted upon by all.

There was no other business we were dismissed by the Pastor
