PLEASANT VIEW - PASTORAL RELATION COMMITTEE

Pastoral Relation Committee

The Pastoral Relation Committee met on April 5, 1964. The Pastor read from the discipline the duties of the committee.

The Committee reported to the Pastor some members objected to the welcome of new members into the church. Rev. Barrington felt the most ethical way of ~~doing~~ this and keep within the worship is to have the key persons within the church such as lay leader, stewards or chairman of trustee board ~~shake hands~~. The committee recommended asking the equal board to so designate the names to serve on this welcoming committee among these key persons.

The committee asked that a joint meeting be called between the two churches on an average for the purpose of lengthening the time between our two church services.

We feel the pastor has' fully fulfilled his obligations to the church.

Alma Reddy
Secretary

PASTORAL RELATIONS MEETING - SUNDAY, MARCH 10, 1963

The duties of this Committee were read by Mrs. Alma Ridgley.

The Committee does feel that the pastor is doing an adequate job. However, some members of the church feel that more visitations should be made by the pastor. It is felt that the class leaders should take on a greater responsibility in making visitations but that they should keep the pastor informed when a need arises for his presence.

The Committee feels the need for an informal meeting with the pastor and members of all organizations, particularly members of the official board, on "what our church stands for" in relationship to the issues of today.
