

Hi Jen: This one is a long story which I do not think I told you guys. It concerns The ill-fated village of My Lai, an ambushed patrol and me going there to water ski on the Song Truck River near My Lai. I really did that. There was a very small Navy Patrol Boat Outpost nearby. I gave those guys a couple of cases of beer and they took me out water skiing in VC-contested area! I did wear that 45 pistol on the water. No one bothered us. . . More later,

I was invincible,

Bruce
