

the President and Vice-President of the United States of America, in and for the State of Maryland, in pursuance of the constitution and laws of the United States as having obtained the aforesaid number of votes.

Done at the city of Annapolis on the first Wednesday in December, being the fifth day of the month, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two. In witness whereof we have hereto subscribed our hands and affixed our seals.

LIST of persons voted for as President of the United States of America, by the Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States, in and for the State of Maryland.

HENRY CLAY, of the State of Kentucky, had received five votes as President of the United States of America.

ANDREW JACKSON, of the State of Tennessee, had received three votes, as President of the United States of America.

We do hereby certify that the above is a true list of persons put in nomination and voted for by the electors of President and Vice-President of the United States, in and for the State of Maryland, and the number of votes by them respectively received.

Witness our hands and seals, this 5th day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty two.

LIST of persons voted for as Vice-President of the United States of America, by the electors of President and Vice-President of the United States, in and for the State of Maryland.

JOHN SERGEANT, of the State of Pennsylvania, had received five votes as Vice-President of the United States of America.

MARTIN VAN BUREN, of the State of New York, had received three votes as Vice-President of the United States of America.

We do hereby certify that the above is a true list of persons put in nomination and voted for by the Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States, in and for the State of Maryland, and the number of votes by them respectively received.

Witness our hands and seals this 5th day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two.

These certificates were accordingly made out in due form, signed, sealed, and endorsed by the Electors, and addressed to the President of the Senate of the United States of America, at Washington—one of which was delivered