

which shall be sufficient for the fulfilment of existing engagements, and the due sustention of the public credit; towards that indispensable concernment, the views of the committee will be presented in a separate report, in the mean time, it will proceed to exhibit the present condition of the several funds, and the monetary property of the state.

Of the School Funds as on the 1st December, 1832.

The common school invested in productive capital amounted to,	84,600 00
The free school fund invested in like manner belonging to different counties for the education of indigent children, amounted to,	50,168 66
Beside which the balance of cash, belonging to those funds remaining in the Treasury of the Western Shore on the 1st December 1832, amounted to,	21,187 86
Making together the sum of,	$155,956 52

OF THE SINKING FUNDS.

These funds are appropriated for the redemption of debts created for various public purposes—their respective aggregates of productive capital on the first December 1832, were as follows—to wit,

1. For the erection of tobacco inspection warehouses,	500 00
2. For the improvement of the Penitentiary,	13,400 00
3. For the University,	12,200 00
4. For investment in the stock of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company,	2,600 00
Making together the sum of,	$33,700 00
Beside which the balance of cash, remaining in the Treasury, belonging to these funds on the 1st December 1832, amounted to,	528 18
Making together the sum of,	$34,228 18