

The accoutrements, which should have been delivered with the arms received for the last two years, have not been received. The cause for this delay has been heretofore communicated. The arms called for by order of the Executive, November 23d, 1831, have been received, except the two hundred Artillery swords.

With high respect,

Your obedient servant,

RICHARD HARWOOD, of Thos.

Adjutant General, Md. Ma.