

BANK OF BALTIMORE.)

January 21, 1834.)

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication as chairman of the committee of Ways and Means, and now have the pleasure to state for the information of the honorable, the House of Delegates, that the capital of this bank is one million two hundred thousand dollars, all paid in except three shares not paid in full. It is divided into shares of three hundred dollars each, in all, four thousand shares, six hundred of which shares are held by the state, and thirty-four hundred by individuals, and that the bank has no privilege by its charter to increase its capital. The bank has granted no loans to other banks in this state, or citizens or banks of other states, and possesses no stocks or funds of other states.

Very respectfully,

Your most obedient servant,

WM. LORMAN,

President of the Bank of Baltimore.

A. E. Jones, Esq. Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, Annapolis.
