

With this statement we respectfully submit the whole matter to the decision of an impartial tribunal, confident that the judgment of the Legislature will be such as without impairing the resources of the state, will bring to a successful accomplishment so important a work of internal improvement.

By order of the Board,
JAMES HOWARD, President.