

Sec. 25: And be it enacted, That whenever an act shall have been passed by the Congress of United States according to the principles of the proposal herewith reported, entitled, "A bill to create a national currency, and to provide for the custody, transmission, and disbursement of the moneys of the United States;" then, and in that case, it shall be the duty of the Governor and Council to certify to the President of the United States, the assent of this state to the provisions of the said act, and the assumption of the obligations therein enjoined; and the said obligations are hereby assumed in consideration of the benefits to be enjoyed by the people of this state from the distribution of the national currency, and the public moneys to be deposited; as contemplated by the said bill.