

be exercised in the public service, the Undersigned would beg leave, after what has been said, here to conclude this report, offering with it at the same time the assurance of the perfect respect, with which he has the honor to remain,

Your Excellency's

Most obedient servant,

J. H. ALEXANDER.

Annapolis, 29th December, 1834.