

INDEX TO THE REPORTS.

	Page.
ENGINEER'S REPORT, - - - - -	2
REPORT OF THE GEOLOGIST, - - - - -	13
SECT. I.—Southern limits of the shell-marl deposite on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, available for Agricultural purposes, - - -	14
SECT. II.—Principal location of the shell-marl deposites between the Choptank and Chester rivers, - - - - -	15
SECT. III.—Nature of the materials contained in the shell-marl deposites of the Eastern Shore of Maryland, - - - - -	20
SECT. IV.—Mode of extracting the marl—its use and its application, - - -	23
SECT. V.—Of the different kinds of soil belonging to Caroline, Queen Ann's, and Talbot counties; their natural susceptibilities to improvements; and the mode of amending them, - - - - -	32
SECT. VI.—Miscellaneous Resources of the Eastern Shore of Maryland, for Agricultural and other purposes, - - - - -	37
Geological Examination of the shores of the Potomac in Prince George's and Charles counties, Md. - - - - -	39
SECT. I.—Geology of Prince George's and Charles counties on the Potomac, and characters of their soils, - - - - -	40
SECT. II.—Principal localities of the shell-marl deposites on the Potomac, their constitution, relative value, and use, - - - - -	43
SECT. III.—Mineral resources of the portions of Prince George's and Charles counties, situated on the Potomac, - - - - -	49
Of the State Cabinet, and its proposed arrangement, - - - - -	50
Miscellaneous matter which has fallen within the duties of the State Geologist to investigate during the past year, - - - - -	52
Nature and object of the Maps A. and B. appended to this Report, - - -	53
APPENDIX. - - - - -	57
LETTER A.—To the honorable Levi Woodbury, - - - - -	“
LETTER B.—Answer from the same, - - - - -	59