

that the revenue which the Baltimore and Susquehanna rail road will yield, will fully justify the most sanguine expectations which they have ever held forth, and they as firmly trust that the advantages which will accrue from it to the city of Baltimore will be at least as great as have been represented.

By order of the board,

CHARLES HOWARD, President.