

		Brought forward,	$
1836.	Mar. 1	To Samuel L. McKeehan's Administrators, his allowance by the Journal of Accounts of December session, 1834, - - -	7 00
	9	To Jeremiah Hughes, $120, for printing the Treasurer's Annual Report; $4, for publishing a proclamation of Congressional Election, and $9 50, for sundry advertisements, by order of the Executive, - - -	133 50
	10	To Lynde Elliott, in pur. of Res. No. 79, of 1834, for publishing in his paper, sundry laws, by order of the Executive, - - -	75 00
April	4	To William McNeir, his allowance by the Journal of Accounts, of December session, 1835, - - -	$3,747 75
	6	To same, for printing forms, &c., for the Executive, per account allowed, - - -	30 00
	8	To Jeremiah Hughes, his allowance by the Journal of Accounts, of December session, 1835, - - -	3,388 56
	16	To Weber and Co., in pur. of Res. No. 102, of 1834, $183 25, and to A. Schwanecker, in pur. of Res. No. 102, of 1834, $299 68, for drawing and printing topographical maps, - - -	482 93
May	28	To William McNeir, for printing for the Executive, per account allowed, - - -	15 00
		To same, for 1,600 copies of the Journal of the Senate, per contract, - - -	1,600 00
June	6	To same, his allowance by the Jour. of Acc'ts, of May sess. 1836, - - -	491 00
Carried forward, -			$