THE SENTINEL.

ROCKVILLE, MD.

FRIDAY ::: JANUARY 27, 1860.

United States Senator.

"Much interest is felt in the election of United States Senator from Maryland, which will take place next month, [February.] The most prominent candidates are Hon. Jas. A. Pearce, the present occupant, and Hon. Jas. Stewart, member from the first district.

"Mr. Pearce being a member of the Opposition party, consequently has no claim on the Democratic party. Therefore the Democracy, having a majority on joint ballot, it is to be hoped they will send a Democrat. Mr. Stewart is a sound, national, conservative Democrat—one who has and will always stand by the interest of the South and the Constitution."

The above extract, taken from the Washington correspondence of the Philadelphia "Argus," contains sentiments, which, to us, seem very ill-timed and injudicious, not to say unpatriotic. The attempt to stir up strife between the original Democrats and those Whigs who have nobly joined them in their efforts to save the Constitution and the Union, if successful, would be disastrous to the whole country. When we see the country brought almost to the verge of ruin, by the factions of the Know-nothings and Abolitionists, the attempt to divide the sound portion of the people on old and by-gone prejudices, ought to be discouraged, by all wise and good citizens. It reminds us of the factions of John and Timon, in the siege of Jerusalem, who took every opportunity to shed each other's blood in the temple, while the Romans were thundering at their gates. And let us remember that Jerusalem was taken, the people destroyed or sold into slavery—that not one stone was left upon another in the city, and the ploughshare was run over its ruins. Let it not be so with our dissensions.

We have nothing to say in derogation of the abilities or patriotism of Mr. Stewart; we believe in both. But if he is put up against Mr. Pearce, on the grounds indicated in the above extract, we should oppose him as an enemy to the Democratic party and the country. For ourselves, we look on Mr. Pearce as the best man we could have in the Senate at this time. Gifted with a sound mind, well informed in literature and political science, of mature age and enlarged experience, of undoubted patriotism and pure character, which must give him influence in any body of which he is a member—why should we wish to lose his services at such a time as this? We hope and believe that the Legislature will preserve to us one of that glorious band, who sat as a companion and recognized equal with Webster, Clay, and Calhoun, in the brightest days of our Republic.

The Game Law.—The act generally known as the game law, passed by the Legislature for the protection of game within the state of Maryland, went into effect on the 15th of the present month. Henceforth, from the fifteenth of January to the first of October next, it will be unlawful to kill any patridge, under a penalty of five dollars for each offense, half of the five to go to the informer, and the other half to the public schools of the State. The same law extends to woodcock, between the first day of February and the tenth day of June next, and pheasants between the first day of February and the twentieth day of August next. And the law further provides that any person exposing for sale, or having in their possession, any of the above named birds, between the dates mentioned, shall be subject to the same penalty, provided they are killed within the limits of the State.

Appointments.—The Commissioners for this county, on Tuesday last, made the following appointments:

First District.—Constables, Wm Dwyer, and Elvin C. Fish, vice Reuben T. Manakee and Richard Lowe, resigned; Supervisor, George T. Pepe, vice William Thompson, R. W., resigned.

Fourth District.—Constable, John C. Myers, vice John T. Kilgour, resigned.

Bridge Jail.—Two prisoners, white men, named Wm. McDougal and ——— Harrington, a discription of whom will be found in the advertisement of Sheriff Gloyd, to be found in another column to day's paper, escaped from the jail of this county on Tuesday night last, by prying out one of the windows. McDougal was in jail for using incendiary language, and Harrington charged with horse-stealing.

Another Military Company.—A company of cavalry has been organized at Brookville, in this county, with the following officers: Captain, Edward W. Owen; first lieutenant, B. W. Waters; second lieutenant, O. P. Watkins; third lieutenant, Z. D. Waters; surgeon, Dr. B. B. Crawford. The name of the company is the Montgomery Mounted Guards.

☞ Our thanks are due to the Hon. Anthony Kennedy, of the U. S. Senate, and Hon. G. W. Hughes, of the House, for valuable public documents.

Free Colored People.—The condition of this class of our population, says the Annapolis Republican, will be a serious subject for legislation this winter, and there seems to be a disposition upon the part of members to act for the good of the race. We do not believe a law will be enacted, as some desire, to enslave them, or forcibly expel them from the State. A law may, however, pass to have hired out those who are able to work, but who are too lazy and worthless to earn their living unless compelled by law to labor.

Meeting of the Louisiana Legislature.—The Governor's Message.—The Governor's message was transmitted to the Legislature of this State on the 19th instant. The Governor recommends that the State be prepared to meet her sister States of the South, in convention, in case certain contingencies be complied with. He favors retaliating the hostility of the North by licensing and inflicting discriminations against Northern goods amounting to an absolute prohibition. The House passed a joint resolution declaring that the Harper's Ferry affair was an attack upon the rights and privileges of the South, and showing the hostility of the North. The Governor says he considers that the election of a Republican President is a cause for a dissolution of the Union.

Quite Satisfied with Him.—The London Post pays a high compliment to President Buchanan, for the judgement and good sense displayed by him in the present settlement of the San Juan affair. It says:

"The policy which Mr. Buchanan has pursued throughout the dispute is highly creditable to the wisdom and justice of that gentleman. He has practically disavowed the lawless and offensive acts of General Harney, and has placed the question upon a footing with which diplomacy can easily and safely deal."

It thinks a reference to some independent power to say what is the proper interpretation of the treaty in respect to the boundary lines is the next step in the stage of the dispute.

Gunning and Hunting.—The new code of laws supersedes all the old legislative enactments relative to gunning, hunting and trespassing on other persons premises, article 30, section 67, enacting as follows:

"Every person who shall, upon any pretense whatever, come to hunt with gun or dog upon the lands of another, without leave or license from the owner or possessor thereof first had and obtained, shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay to the party aggrieved the sum of five dollars, to be recovered before a justice of the peace in the name of the State."

This law covers the whole State, and applies to all lands and premises, whether enclosed or lying open.

An Insane Congressman.—The Hon. Clark B. Cochrane, who was taken to the Utica Insane Asylum on the 19th instant, is a Black Republican member of the present Congress from Western New York. He recently returned home from Washington. The existing agitation in Congress is believed to have greatly contributed in bringing on his unfortunate insanity. His friends are in hope that by skillful treatment he may in a short time be restored to reason and health.

The Post Office Contractors.—A number of letters were received at the Post Office Department in Washington on Tuesday of last week, from mail contractors in different parts of the Union, declaring their intention to break off the lines, if no appropriation is made by the 1st of March. The House of Representatives, in so long delaying its organization, is assuming a fearful responsibility.

Damage to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal.—Despatches from Martinsburg, state that the recent snow and subsequent thaw in the Potomac has caused a serious breach in the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal. About 80 feet of dam No. 5 has been washed away; also the dock of dam No. 4. The store house of dam No. 4 was greatly damaged.

☞ The Baltimore Police and Election Bills were reported in the House of Delegates on Friday last, from the committee on the judiciary, to whose hands the subject had been formally committed the day previous. They were made, in courteous deference to the opponents of the measures, the order of the day for Monday next.

Congress.—There has been no organization of the House of Representatives yet. The whole employment of the members, for the last week, has been speech-making, not a single ballot having been taken.

☞ We have received the first number of the "Bulletin," published at Cumberland, Md., by E. Z. Zevely.—It is a large and handsomely printed sheet, and displays much talent in its editorials and selections. We welcome it to our table, and wish the publisher success.

Death of Hon. John Nelson.—We learn from our Baltimore exchanges, that the Hon. John Nelson died at his residence, on Mount Vernon Place, in that city, about half-past nine o'clock on Wednesday night of last week, after a short but severe illness. Mr. Nelson had been complaining, but had only been confined to the house a few days, his disease being gout in the stomach. He was about 69 years of age.

Democratic Caucus.—A caucus of both branches of the Legislature was held on the night of the 19th instant, to consider the Baltimore city police and election bills. The House caucus adopted both bills by nearly a unanimous vote, and the Senate by a vote of eight to four. Both bills will probably be passed in a few days.

Another Veto.—It has heretofore been stated that Governor Stewart, of Missouri, had refused to sign the bill passed by its Legislature, for the exclusion of the free colored population from that State. It appears that Gov. Perry, of Florida, has also declined to sign a bill of a like character excluding the same class of persons from Florida.

The U. S. Treasurership.—It is stated that the President tendered some days ago to ex-Governor Thomas, of Maryland, the U. S. Treasurership. Mr. T., it is added, has written a letter to the President declining the appointment.

Appointment.—Gov. Hicks has appointed Geo. W. Jefferson, Esq., to the office of private secretary to the Governor, which office is worth about $800 a year. Mr Jefferson is a young lawyer of Cambridge, Md.

Another Railroad.—The citizens of Washington county, Md., are taking measures for the construction of a railroad from Hagerstown to Weaverton, or some other point on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

Postoffice Scrip.—It is stated that there have been over $4,000,000 worth of scrip issued by the Postoffice Department. One man, it is said, holds two millions of this scrip, purchased at 80 cents.

A Southern Convention.—Resolutions have been submitted to the Virginia Legislature proposing the call of a convention of the slaveholding States, to recommend measures of self-defense and protection.

Treasurer.—The contest for State Treasurer is between Mr. Spriggs Harwood, of Anne Arundel county, and Mr Thomas H. O'Neale, of Frederick county, Maryland.

Attempt to Shoot.—In Baltimore city, on Saturday night, the 14th instant, an attempt was made to shoot Messrs. Morgan and Goldsborough, two members of the committee on elections in the House of Delegates.

☞ Gen. Cass has given to the board of education of Detroit a lot of land valued at $15,000, for a union school house.

Chesapeake and Ohio Canal.—In the Senate of Virginia, on Tuesday, Mr. Thomas, of Fairfax, submitted the following joint resolutions:

Resolved, That the General Assembly respectfully invite the attention of the Legislature of Maryland to the present condition of the canal, in the hope that the latter will adopt some friendly legislation for the purpose of relieving said canal from its present position of embarrassment and insolvency, making it what it is fully capable of being made—a useful work of public improvement.

Resolved, That the Attorney General of the State be hereby cognizant of and requested to proceed to Annapolis to represent the interest of this commonwealth in this great work, and to endeavor to procure by his own exertion, and by co-operation with other parties interested, friendly and considerate legislation from the State of Maryland.

Important Decision.—The Port Tobacco Times publishes the decision of Judge Crain in the case of Scroggin vs. Willett, tried at the late term of the Circuit Court for Charles county. This is an interesting case, as it is probably the first of the kind that has arisen under the present Constitution of the State.—The action was brought to contest the eligibility of Willett to hold the office of Road Supervisor, for which he received the largest number of votes in the third election district of Charles county, when it was known that he was a defaulterer to the Treasury as Collector of Taxes.—Scroggin, the petitioner in this case, received the next highest vote, at the same election, for Road Supervisor, and claimed a right to the office under the 35th section of the third article of the Constitution, which declares; "No person who may hereafter be a collector, receiver or holder of public moneys shall be eligible as Senator or Delegate or to any office of profit or trust, under this State until he shall have accounted for and paid into the Treasury all sums on the books thereof charged to and due by him."—Judge Crain decided that Willett was ineligible to fill the position, and also that the office is vacant.

Sudden Death.—Mr. Robert Bowie, of Prince George's county, one of the Committee Clerks of the House of Delegates, died suddenly, on Tuesday of last week at Walton's Hotel, Annapolis. The deceased was a son of the late Robert W. Bowie, of Prince George's county.

Nebraska Anti-Slavery Bill Vetoed.—We have already stated that Gov. Black, of Nebraska, had vetoed the act of the Territorial Legislature, to prohibit slavery in that Territory. Nebraska, the Governor argues, was part of the Louisiana purchase, which stipulated by treaty that until the Territory should be formed into a State, the inhabitants should be protected in their liberty, property, religion, &c. Every citizen, of every State, had a right to go into the Territory with his property, whether slave property or not. Some few persons did take slaves there, but still fewer remained there, for the reason that Nebraska is no place for slave labor. The power of the "people" over their domestic institutions does not mean the power of the Territorial Legislature in the sense of the organic act; for the Governor of the Territory has a voice equal to more than a majority of the House, and is not elected by the people. When the people of the Territory meet in convention to frame a constitution for a State, they then, for the first time, form their domestic institutions. The Territorial Legislature, in attempting to prohibit something that they had no power over, overlooked the Governor says the true intent and meaning of the act. The bill was introduced into the Legislature for the purpose of testing the power of the Territorial Legislature, which is restricted by the veto to objects within the constitutional sphere of the Legislature as defined by judicial authority.

Mysterious Disappearance.—Among those who testified as to the outrages perpetrated at the second ward polls on the day of the late election, was a German named John J. Ritzius. Almost simultaneous with the publication of his testimony Ritzius disappeared, and has not since been heard of by his family. He was the party who was directed to the tobacco warehouse on O'Donnell's wharf, and taken thence to the corner of Eastern avenue, where he was confined from Monday preceding until election day, when he was voted five or six times at the second ward polls, except a visit in Holliday street, and all together voted fifteen times during the day. He worked usually on O'Donnell's wharf, at rolling sugar from the wharf into the warehouse, and was quite an intelligent man. His sudden and mysterious disappearance two weeks ago has created an apprehension that he has been violently dealt with, as all efforts of his family and friends to discover his whereabouts have failed. [Baltimore Sun.

The Ballot Box.—The Philadelphia Ledger remarks:

The mayor of Baltimoae in his annual message says Baltimore is a Southern city, with Southern interests, and cannot be a passive spectator to events like the Harper's Ferry raid. He relies upon the Northern ballot-box giving a signal rebuke to the wild fanaticism which has produced such results. The mayor must have considerably more faith in the Northern ballot boxes than the citizens of Baltimore have in theirs. At the last election in Baltimore, the Plug Uglies took possession by violence of the polls, and would not allow any citizen who differed from them to vote. If the ballot-boxes north of Baltimore have as weak public authorities to guard them, we would not give much for the rebuke that wild fanaticism will receive through them.

The Senator Lost by the Lawrence Casualty.—The pay-roll of the company contains the names of 950 operatives, of whom 675 were employed in the main building which fell. By the most careful investigation, the whole number now known to be dead and missing is eighty-eight, which in all probability is not far from the actual loss. Mrs. Margaret Donnelly was reported as missing to-day, and another operative, who has been classed among the dead, came forward and claimed her wages, leaving the number stated above unchanged. Compare this account with the figures of Coroner Lamb, who has the names of seventy-three dead and recognized, and a list of fifteen to be still buried without identification, and the total of deaths thus far by the accident is eighty-eight.

☞ A letter dated Buenos Ayres, Nov 16th, speaking of the trouble between England and Paraguay, says:

The imprisonment of an English subject by Paraguay, for a political offence, has called to those waters a force of ships and fun-ds from England and France, bringing, it is said, 12,000 men. The demands of England are so heavy that Paraguay will not entertain them, and long since the English consul withdrew. The prisoner is still living in solitary confinement.

Foreign Trade.—Several leading merchants in New Orleans have organized an European and Southern Direct Trade Association, with a manager in Belgium, which will be the principal European point of operation.

☞ There are about $3,000,000 in the possession of the Post Office Department, but it cannot be paid out till an appropriation bill be passed by Congress for that purpose.

☞ Neither branch of the Legislature was in session on Saturday last.

Marriages.

Married, on the 19th instant, by the Rev. James G. Hening, Mr. Joseph T. Cator to Miss Laura V. Denton; all of this county.

Married, on the 24th instant, by the Rev. Edward A. Colburn, John W. Beall to Elizabeth A. Burford, both of this county.
