[Reported for the Baltimore Sun.]

MARYLAND LEGISLATURE.

ANNAPOLIS, Friday, Jan. 27, 1860.

SENATE.—The bill to repeal the law prohibiting huckstering within ten miles of Baltimore city, &c., was received from the House, (where it passed,) and was referred to the committee on judicial proceedings. [It will undoubtedly pass the Senate in a few days and become a law.]

Petition Presented.—By Mr. Yellott, from Wm. R. Thompson and 3,000 other citizens of Baltimore, remonstrating against the passage of the police and election bills. Mr. Kimmell desired the reading of the signatures, which was proceeded with until the arrival of the hour for the ORDER OF THE DAY.

Being the second reading of the bill to repeal the laws giving to the Mayor of Baltimore, the judges of the criminal and superior courts, the power to order out the militia.

Mr. Kimmell moved to strike out the enacting clause.

Mr. Yellott demanded the yeas and nays. Lost—ayes 8, noes 12.

Mr. Kimmell made a lengthy and discursive speech in opposition to the bill.

Mr Yellott proposed the following amendment:

"Provided, however, that the provisions of the second section shall not apply in case there is urgent necessity for the immediate aid of the military for the suppression of actual insurrection or invasion, or actual and forcible opposition to the laws, beyond the control of the civil officers of the government."

Upon which Mr. Yellott made a lengthy speech. The amendment was lost.

Mr. Goldsborough of Dorchester, then offered an amendment that the city of Baltimore should not be held liable to make indemnity for property destroyed in case of riot, etc. Mr. Goldsborough spoke at length upon his motion.

Mr. Kimmell also spoke upon the motion. The amendment was lost.

Mr. Smith of Carroll, then offered an amendment, that the bill before the Senate should not go into operation until the bill establishing police commissioners shall have been enacted. Upon this motion Mr. Smith made a lengthy and eloquent speech.

The bill was then ordered to be engrossed.

THE BALTIMORE POLICE BILL.

The reading of the Baltimore police bill having been commenced, Mr. Kimmell moved to strike out the enacting clause of the "Moody bill," which was lost.

Several calls of the Senate were had and several motions to adjourn were voted down; after which the Senate agreed, about three o'clock, to take a recess until four o'clock.

EVENING AND NIGHT SESSIONS—ACTION ON THE BALTIMORE BILLS.

Friday Evening, Jan. 27.

SENATE.—After the close of my report on Friday, the Senate continued in session with brief intermission until 11½ o'clock at night, the first intermission being from 3 to 4 o'clock. The dominant party complained that it was the design of the minority to embarrass, delay and weary them. The minority insisted that all they desired was to place themselves right upon the records of the Senate.

THE BALTIMORE POLICE BILL.

The Baltimore police bill being under consideration, Mr. Yellott offered the following amendment to the first section:

"And from and after the passage of this act the State of Maryland shall be responsible for any damages to property, caused by riotous or tumultuous assemblages of the people within the city of Baltimore."

Mr. Yellott spoke at length in favor of his amendment.

Mr. Yellott's amendment was voted down by 16 nays, having four American votes against it.

Mr. Yellott moved an amendment to the third section, that the police commissioners should be "native born" citizens of the United States. Lost by a party vote—ayes 12, noes 10.

Mr. Yellott then moved that the police commissioners should be twenty-one years citizens of the United States—lost. Also that they be ten years citizens of the United States—lost.

Mr. Stone moved that the salary of the police commissioners be $1,000 instead of $2,000.

Mr. Yellott moved that they serve without salary. The above amendments of Mr. Yellott and Mr. Stone were lost.

Mr. Bradley moved to make the salary of the police commissioners $1,500—lost.

Mr. Yellott moved that the police commissioners should be residents of Baltimore city five years instead of twelve months.

The amendment was lost.

Mr. Goldsborough moved to amend the section relating to the filling of a vacancy in the board of commissioners by conferring the power to appoint, during the recess of the Legislature, upon the Governor. Mr. Kimmell moved to have any vacancy in the board filled by the President of the United States, who could then order out his marines to crush the rowdies. That would be democratic and consistent with the "bloody bill." Both amendments were lost.

Mr. Yellott moved to make the bonds of each police commissioner $250,000, instead of $50,000. He desired to have responsible security for sums over $250,000 which they might receive—Lost.

Mr. Bashiell, of Somerset, moved to insert the names of S. Teackle Wallis, George M. Gill, Joshua Vansant and Wm. H. Norris as the commissioners, instead of Charles Howard, Wm. H. Gatchell, Charles D. Hinks and John W. Davis, of Baltimore.—Lost.

Mr. Bradley, of Queen Anne's, moved to insert the names of J. H. Thomas, J. D. Seidenstricker, Wm. McKim and Stirling Thomas as commissioners—lost.

Mr. Yellott moved to make J. Hanson Thomas, Stirling Thomas, James Carroll and Edward D. Kemp commissioners.—The amendment was lost.

Mr. Yellott moved that the Governor be authorized to appoint the commissioners of police as other gubernatorial appointments are made, and stated that otherwise the bill would be unconstitutional, and argued this point at length.

The amendment was lost.

Mr. Dashiell, of Somerset, moved that the commissioners of police hold their offices for life.—Mr. Yellott moved "or during good behavior." Both lost.

A HELPER AMENDMENT.

Mr. Kimmell moved that "no black republican or sympathiser of that party, or endorser of the Helper book, or approver thereof, shall be appointed as a policeman under the said bill."

Mr. Yellott approved of the amendment, and it was carried—yeas 14, nays 7; all the American Senators present, and Senators Brooke, Lynch, Watkins, Miles, Heckart and Townsend, democrats, voting for it. [This was the only amendment adopted in any of the five bills.]

Mr. Yellott moved that every policeman should be able to read and write the English language—lost.

Mr. Watkins, of Howard, moved a reconsideration of the "Helper" amendment offered by Mr. Kimmell, but withdrew his motion.

Mr. Yellott moved that the police officers appointed under the bill by section 6, be native born citizens of the United States and residents of Baltimore city for two years—lost.

Mr. Yellott moved to strike out section 12 placing the police alarm telegraph, station houses, etc., of Baltimore under the control of the new commissioners, and in case the city council refuse to give them up, to sue for them in the courts—lost.

Mr. Yellott moved that the section empowering the sheriff to call out the posse comitatus, and prescribing a penalty of $5,000 against the sheriff for refusing to perform his duties under the bill be so amended as to read "not exceeding $3,000."—Lost.

Mr. Yellott moved the same amendment in relation to many other penalties under the bill, (in order to give the courts power to impose a less or nominal penalty,) all of which were lost.

The bill was then ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, and the Senate, at about 9 o'clock, took a recess of ten minutes.

THE PROTEST.

Mr. Goldsborough, of Dorchester, protested against the action of the Senate.—The ten members of the minority then signed a protest against proceeding with the second reading of the three other bills, for the reason that they had not been printed, and that they had had no opportunity afforded them until this evening for an examination of them.

Mr. Goldsborough stated that if the majority would permit this protest to be entered upon the journal, the minority would offer no further obstacles to the prompt second reading of the three remaining Baltimore bills. [The majority signified their assent in order to save time.]

Mr. Lynch, of Baltimore county, protested against the entering of the protest upon the journal of proceedings.

Mr. McKaig then offered the following:

Ordered, That that protest of Anthony Kimmell and nine others, be entered upon the journal, but that such entry is not to be construed as an admission by the majority of the strict truth of the statements contained in said protest.

The order was unanimously adopted. The minority, however, reserving the right to discuss the bills fully on Saturday on a third reading.

The three other bills relating to the city of Baltimore, reported by the committee on judiciary, were then read by titles without opposition, and ordered to be engrossed.

The bills were then made the special order of the day for Saturday at 11½ o'clock.

The Senate at 11½ o'clock at night adjourned.

ANNAPOLIS, January 28.

SENATE.—Orders Presented.—By Mr. Goldsborough, of Dorchester, that the State Librarian be directed to send to each of the judges of this State, each of the clerks of courts, and each State's attorney, a copy of the public, general and local laws, including the legislation of the present session, as soon as they are endorsed by the Governor and printed; adopted. By Mr. McKaig, that the Secretary of the Senate and the clerks of the House send to our representatives in Congress a certified copy of the resolutions passed on the 19th instant, relative to negotiations with Great Britain for the restoration of fugitive slaves in Canada; adopted.

THE ORDER OF THE DAY.

The Baltimore city police and election bills were taken up at 11½ o'clock, as the order of the day.

The bill to repeal the law giving power to the mayor and city council of Baltimore city, and the judges of the Criminal Court and the Superior Court to call out the militia, was read a third time and passed—ayes 12, noes 9, being a strict party vote.

The general police bill was then taken up and the reading proceeded with.

Mr. Miles moved that so much be considered a third reading.

Mr. Yellott objected and called for the ayes and noes, (three-fourths being necessary,) when the motion was withdrawn.

[The reading of the bill was then proceeded with. Much weariness and impatience was manifested by the dominant party and the crowd of spectators, but its numerous folios were finally got through with, and the bill was finally passed by the same vote of 12 to 9. The same action was taken on the lengthy election bill for Baltimore city, and the two other bills for regulating streets and lamps, and repealing sections of the code which would conflict with the new election law.

At five minutes before two o'clock, the five bills were all read through and passed, much to the relief of all parties. The Senate in a few minutes adjourned.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES.—Petitions Presented.—By Mr. Harding, from St. Anthony's Orphan Asylum of Baltimore to confirm their corporate powers under the general law, and reported a bill to that effect. Also, to change the name of the associated Professors of St. Mary's College, to that of Associated Professors of St. Mary's Seminary, &c., and reported a bill to that effect.

Mr. Bayless presented the counter memorial of W. H. Purnell to that of A. Lingan Jarrett contesting his election as comptroller. Mr. Bayless moved that it be printed. Mr. Fresner objected, as the memorial of Mr. Jarrett had never been printed. It was not printed, but referred to the committee on elections.

Bill Reported.—By Mr. Macubbin, chairman of the committee on claims, to compensate Otho Scott and Hiram McCullough for the codification of the laws. [The bill appropriates $15,000.]

A number of bills were read a second time.

The House then adjourned till Monday morning, at 12 o'clock.

A magnificent assortment of Flowers, far richer than any before sold in Washington.
Marabout and Ostrich Feathers
Coq de Plumes, bought expressly for the purpose of trimming the Souberros Marron, the latest style of Hats worn by all the fashionable ladies of Paris and England.

A choice assortment of Bonnet and Trimming Ribbons
Berthe Capes a la Marie Antoinette
Pelerine Zonare
Velvet Ribbons, in black and high colors
Wide Black Velvet for cloaks, first quality
Black and Colored Bonnet Velvets
Velour Imperial
Bonnet Silks, in all colors
Parisian Bonnets, really beautiful
Parisian Ruches for Bonnets

A splendid stock of Cloth and Velvet Cloaks
A great variety of Children's Pourteese, Pelerines and Raglans, both plain and embroidered.

All of the above articles, and a great many others not enumerated, were purchased at the opening of the present Parisian season, and are consequently a whole season in advance of the stocks usually found here, as the goods imported to this country are generally ordered the preceding March, and hence are necessarily of the previous fall's Parisian style. Hence, to avoid the annoyance of being always behind the fashions, while making a visit to Europe I stopped a few weeks in Paris and bought the above goods in person, from first hands. I hope the kind patronage of the ladies will enable me to make a yearly trip to Paris, with the sole object of keeping pace with the Parisian fashions, and to have all the new styles of goods here at the same time they appear upon the Paris shelves.

Particular attention given to orders.

Cloaks and Bonnets made to order in latest styles.

N. B.—Ladies wishing any choice articles from Paris may obtain them by leaving their orders with me.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS AND MACHINERY
FOR THE FALL OF 1859.

THE subscriber, having just returned from his annual tour throughout the New England States, where he is engaged extensively in the manufacture of agricultural Implements and Machinery, would call the attention of Farmers and Dealers in agricultural implements to his facilities for furnishing them with all articles in that line.

At the North (whence I have just returned) I have made arrangements that will enable me to furnish all goods in my line

AT PRICES BEYOND COMPETITION!
Lower than any other House south of N. Y.

Through the representations and experience of many intelligent farmers, I am introducing in this part of the country several new and important features in Farming Implements and Machinery, as also, new and important improvements on machinery now in use.

The subscriber would further say, that from these annual tours he is enabled to obtain all goods in his line directly from the Manufacturers, and not through wholesale establishments, as is usual with Southern Houses, and he is thus enabled to furnish all Implements and Machinery by retail, at wholesale prices.

I enumerate Implements and Machinery for this season, as follows:

Threshers and Cleaners combined, of various kinds, with latest improvements
Threshers and Separators, of various kinds, with latest improvements
Horse Powers, of various kinds, with the latest improvements
Wheat Fans with Balance Wheels, a new feature, made expressly to my order
New Wheat Drills
" Cider Mills
" Seed Drills
" Horse & Ox Carts
" Corn and Cob Crushers
" Hay, Straw, and Cornstalk Cutters
" Horse Hoes, entirely different from any ever offered in this market
New Corn Shellers
" Potato Diggers
" Hay Cutters
" Churns, do. Plows

New Hay Presses, and all other Machines and Implements for agricultural purposes, too numerous to mention.

Being thoroughly conversant with all the various branches of agricultural machinery, with 15 years' practical experience therein, it is to the interest of the farming community to purchase their machines from me, as it frequently occurs in purchasing machinery from persons unacquainted therewith, it is put up in an improper manner, and it more frequently occurs, in the shipment and moving of machinery, that some of the apparently insignificant parts get out of order, which, by the unpractical, is often unobserved, and when observed, they cannot obviate; hence the accidents and mishaps which render machinery, thus purchased, so unprofitable and expensive to the farmer, as in all cases it is at his risk and expense.

☞ All Machinery guaranteed, and carefully inspected before leaving my warehouse.

GUANOS.—Peruvian, Californian, Barrow's Flesher Manipulated Guano, and all other Fertilizers constantly on hand, and will be sold on the most favorable terms.

BONE DUST—lower than ever offered in this District. SEED & GARDEN SEEDS.

Being thankful to the farming community for their past favors so liberally bestowed, I hope to merit a continuance of the same.
