

THE SENTINEL

BENJAMIN F. WADDEY, Georgetown, D. C. is authorized agent for receiving subscriptions and advertisements.

FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.—It is a fact that John C. Breckinridge has always been the able and consistent defender of the institution of slavery; opposing, while a member of the Kentucky Legislature, the schemes of the emancipationists for the removal of slaves from that State, and voting while in Congress, with and for the South upon every question affecting her rights and honor.

It is a fact, that John C. Breckinridge has always been the faithful and eloquent champion of the Union, the Constitution, and the equality of the States, opposing himself throughout his public career the elevated statesman, the patriot and honest man.

It is a fact, that John Bell voted against the admission of Kansas to a pro-slavery Constitution, in company with Seward, Hale, Sumner and Wilson and other Abolitionists, and against the South.

It is a fact, that the irregularly attending the admission of California, a free State, did not prevent John Bell from voting for her admission.

It is a fact, that the platform of the Federalists, John Bell party does not meet the issues of the day, and was intended to mean one thing at the South and another at the North.

It is a fact, that the great question to be decided at the Presidential election in November is, whether the Southern States are the equals of the Northern States in the Union; and that every Southern man who votes for Bell or Douglas, virtually acknowledges that they are not.

It is a fact, that the only candidates that stand any chance of defeating the Black Republicans are Breckinridge and Lane.

Every Democratic Governor and Law-Every Democratic Governor and Law-Every Democratic Governor and Law.

Mr. Douglas Explains His Object.—In two or three of his numerous recent stump speeches Mr. Douglas declared that he did not want to be President of the United States, but had rather remain Senator from Illinois. This is a very remarkable confession, and, if true, conveys his own mind of being a candidate only in order to defeat Lincoln.

The Hon. Thomas Perry, Judge of the Judicial District composed of Allegany and Washington Counties, has renounced Douglas and declared for Breckinridge and Lane. The Cumberland Bulletin, in making this announcement, says: "We hail all such accessions to the true cause of Democracy with pleasure. The Judge will carry with him a power of strength that might otherwise have been decayed in the support of Douglas."
