THE SENTINEL.

STATE AID FOR KANSAS.—The New York Kansas relief committee are before the Legislature of Pennsylvania, asking for $10,000. On this the Philadelphia Ledger remarks:

There is, no doubt, suffering in Kansas, though greatly exaggerated. The attempt to force a population in that State for political purposes, a few years ago, and the trouble it produced, necessarily tended to cause future distress; for the people who went there were entirely unfitted for the duties required of emigrants, and the political troubles drove out all who desired to live in quiet, and reap the fruits of their industry. A drought last season helped to bring the State to its present destitute condition. But as destitute as the people of Kansas may be, they are not in a worse condition than the laboring men and women in the city of Philadelphia at this time. There are thousands of sewing women in this city to-day, who have been out of employment since last November, and as many mechanics who do not know where to get the next meal their wants require. Appeals are daily made for relief to these persons, many of whom have had but one meal a day for weeks, and indebted for that to the kindness of friends and neighbors. If the State of Pennsylvania has $10,000 to spare for the relief of Kansas, it ought certainly do as much for its own suffering citizens, whose labor creates the property which supplies the State with its necessary means of expenditure.

THE INAUGURATION CEREMONIES.—Military and Civic Procession.—We see that it has been finally arranged to have a military and civic procession in Washington on Monday next, on the occasion of the inauguration of Mr. Lincoln. The order of procession is announced by Major B. B. French, the marshal-in-chief. There will be eleven marshals, an assistant marshal for each State still in the Union, and a number of aids. George N. Beale is the assistant marshal for Maryland; George Rye for Virginia; Mr. Grimshaw for Delaware, Theodore Adams for Pennsylvania, and D. R. Goodloe for North Carolina. We quote from the orders of the marshal-in-chief, as follows:

The procession will be formed in front of the City Hall, and in the streets adjacent thereto, at 9 o'clock, A. M., of the 4th of March inst. At 11 o'clock, A. M., the procession will move from the parade ground by Louisiana avenue to Pennsylvania avenue, thence along Pennsylvania avenue, and so far past Willard's Hotel (where the President elect will be) up Fifteenth street, as will enable it to countermarch and halt on Pennsylvania avenue in front of the hotel. The entire column will, under orders, left face, and the military will present arms. The President and President elect will then be received into the line, and the column will, under orders, right face and move, escorting them to the Capitol. Banners and adornments may be worn in the procession; but no offensive emblems or devices will be permitted to disturb the national ceremony. After the President elect reaches the Capitol, the various portions of the procession will witness the inauguration according to their pleasure taking care to respect the programme, which has already been published by the Committee of the Senate.

As soon as the inauguration ceremonies are concluded, the military, with the marshals and assistant marshals and aids, will, as the final ceremony, escort the President and his attendants to the executive mansion.

DESPERATE ATTEMPT AT ASSASSINATION.—On Thursday night of last week, a desperate attempt was made to assassinate Hon. C. H. Van Wyck, of New York, as he was going from the room of Senator King, on Capitol Hill, to the National. Mr. Van Wyck left Senator King's about 11 o'clock, and while passing down the North side of the Capitol ground he was attacked by three men, one of whom struck him upon the left side with a large dirk knife. The blade of the knife cut a hole in his overcoat, about 14 inches long, and was driven through a folded copy of the Congressional Globe, and almost through a large leathern-covered memorandum book. Mr. Van Wyck knocked his assailant down, when another man approached him with a knife, and in warding off the blow Mr. Van Wyck received a severe cut upon the hand. This man was also knocked down, and in firing at this time got hold of his pistol. Mr. Van Wyck shot the one who first attacked him. He was then struck senseless by a stone shot in the hands of the third person, as I believe he had recorded, the parties were said to be two. Mr. Van Wyck reached his room about 12 o'clock, and is now under the medical care of Dr. Lee. Had it not been for the paper and memorandum book, Mr. Van Wyck would have been instantly killed. He is now improving, and, it is hoped, will soon recover.—Wash. Star.

THE TARIFF OF THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY. Mr. Memminger, the Secretary of the Treasury of the Southern Confederacy, thus explains an important provision of the tariff adopted by the Congress at Montgomery:

"Goods imported from any of the United States which are now not of this Confederacy, are exempt from duty without relation to the time of import, if the goods were really purchased on or before the 29th instant, (February.)"

The duties to be paid are for the present the same as those now exacted by the federal government.

The Charleston Courier says:

"All ports in States north of South Carolina are now considered foreign ports, and goods arriving from such ports must be entered at the custom houses of the Confederate States of America. All ports from Georgetown, South Carolina, along the coast, south and west, as far as and including ports of Texas, are coastwise ports."

DEATH-BED CONFESSION OF A MURDERER.—A short time since a white man named Highland Whittaker, or Whitlock, was arrested on the charge of the larceny of thirty dollars. He was convicted of the offence in the Court of Quarter Sessions, but his sentence was withheld in consequence of his having been attacked with small-pox while in prison. He was removed to the almshouse, where he died on Friday. Before he expired he made an affidavit, stating that about a month since he wished to borrow half a dollar from a colored man, at Chestertown, Md. The man refused to lend it, and Whittaker struck him in the head with a hammer and killed him. He threw the body overboard. The authorities of Maryland will be notified of the facts.—Philadelphia Ledger.

MRS. LINCOLN'S COACH.—The coach presented to Mrs. Lincoln, by a few friends in New York, was forwarded to Washington on Monday. It is what is technically called a full dress coach, with a richly trimmed hammercloth depending from the driver's seat, and elaborately carved standard for the footman. The steps are concealed, and descend only with the opening of the doors. The lining is of crimson brocatelle, and the cushions and back are furnished with the latest improvement in seat-springs. Altogether it is a luxuriously fitted-up establishment. The cost was $1,500.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.—We have been informed of the outlines of a terrible tragedy which occurred in Sumter county, near Adamsville, on the 13th ult. A man by the name of Andrews, who was, until recently, a Methodist preacher, killed, on that day, two persons, Messrs. McClellan and G. M. Condry, and wounded two others, Lang and Clyatt. He was immediately arrested and hung on the following day.—Fernandina Floridian.

THE DROUGHT IN CUBA OPENING A MARKET.—Owing to the devastating effects of a severe drought in the island of Cuba, where provisions are scarce and high, the government is said to be about taking off the duties on corn, rice, beans, potatoes, rye flour, hay, hams, bacon, lish and lard—all of which articles are plenty enough in the United States, and may be sold to the distressed Cubans at fair but remunerative prices.

MOTTO FOR THE DAY.—"All, too, will bear in mind this sacred principle, that though the will of the majority is in all cases to prevail, that will, to be rightful, must be reasonable; that the minority possess their equal rights, which equal laws must protect, and to violate which would be oppressive."—Thos. Jefferson.

NOW READY.

The Second Edition

By Authority of the State of Maryland.

THE MARYLAND CODE.

CONTAINING ALL THE

Public General and Public Local Laws,

Now in force, in the State of Maryland,

COMPILED BY

OTHO SCOTT, & HIRAM McCULLOUGH,

Adopted by the Legislature of Maryland, Jan. Session, 1860: the Acts of that Session being therewith incorporated.

With an Index to each Article and Section,

By Henry C. Mackall, of the Maryland Bar.

Just Published, in Two Vols. 8vo. Law Sheep,

1688 pages, only $6. Interleaved, $8. Superbly bound in Half Calf, interleaved, $12, per copy.

THE FIRST EDITION of 2,000 copies of the Code being exhausted by the subscription of the State, the City of Baltimore and the public, the Publishers have the pleasure of announcing that the SECOND EDITION is now ready, for which orders are respectfully solicited.

It is deemed superfluous to dwell on the merits or advantages of this great work, the preparation of which has cost the State upwards of $50,000. The distinguished Coadjutors, whose labors have been ratified by an Act of the present Legislature, have comprised in Full Detail, in Two Volumes, ALL THE PUBLIC AND LOCAL LAWS, now in force in that State, and of course, bearing on every department of business, and every interest of society. Into this comprehensive space, the Code, into which is incorporated the Acts of the last Legislature, collects and digests the Entire Legislation of Maryland from the Provincial Period to the close of the January Session of 1860;—with an elaborate and well digested Index to each Article and Section—careful and minute in its classification of subjects, the reader, no matter how unfamiliar with the science of law, may easily examine the enactments on any question referring to his Property, his Rights, his Duties, or his Liberties as a Citizen.

With the view of enabling every citizen to possess a copy, the Publishers have affixed the price at about one-half the usual charge for Law Books, relying with confidence on the intelligence of the citizens of Maryland for a liberal encouragement. It is perhaps the most complete body of Domestic Jurisprudence ever Published, for Popular as well as Professional use. As a perfect Compendium of our State Law, it should at once realize the good will and secure the patronage of every citizen. Every Law Office, every Merchant, Manufacturer and Farmer, every Mechanic and Artizan, every Professional and Business Man, ought to secure a copy of THE CODE.

The code has been carefully examined by several of the most eminent lawyers in the State. All unite in pronouncing it the most complete body of Domestic Jurisprudence for Professional as well as Popular use, ever published, and one of the best arranged, as it is unquestionably one of the neatest and cheapest law books ever produced in this country. The unexpected demand, and the very favorable opinions expressed by competent judges, are gratifying evidences, that the mode of issuing the Work—in a superior style, and at about one-half the usual price of law books—has met with public approbation.

In order to render the work in every respect useful to Purchasers, we have made arrangements to issue in Pamphlet Form, uniform with the present volumes of the Code, the ACTS of each FUTURE SESSION of the LEGISLATURE. By this means the purchasers of the Code will be enabled to possess all the Legislation of the State, in regular order, at a very moderate price.

Reporting for Early Publication, A DIGEST OF THE DECISIONS, Construing the Statutes of Maryland, of which the Code of Public General Laws is composed, with specifications of the Acts of Assembly, by CHARLES F. MAYER and LEWIS MAYER, of the Baltimore Bar.

Early orders respectfully solicited

HAVE CONSTANTLY ON HAND a large and well selected assortment of—

DRY GOODS AND MILLINERY,

of every description, too numerous to mention; to which they invite the attention of their friends and the public generally, feeling confident of their ability to sell, at prices which cannot fail to please. They would name in part—

Cloths, Cassimeres, Blankets, Shawls
Kentucky Jeans, Cassinets
Servants' Wear, De Laines, Calicoes
Merinoes, Ginghams, &c., &c.

☞ In the line of MILLINERY—

Ribands, Laces, Ruches, Flowers
Feathers, Bonnets, Hats, Jockeys,

And, in fact, everything which is kept in well regulated houses.

DO NOT FAIL TO CALL!

FOR THE FALL AND WINTER OF 1860!

J. P. BARTHOLOW

WOULD respectfully inform his friends and the public generally, that his STOCK OF AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS, in extent, variety and quality, is unequalled by any house south of New York.

His annual tours through the New England States, made with a view of finding and being first in receipt of the latest and best Farming Implements, together with his thorough knowledge of every branch of his business, (being a PRACTICAL MACHINIST, and having extensive practical experience in Agricultural Machinery,) qualify him to assert the above.

He would state that he obtains his goods from the MANUFACTURERS and not from Wholesale Dealers, as is usual with Southern Houses—thereby getting them at FIRST PRICES; and it is obvious that he can offer them at LOWER PRICES than those who purchase from second hands, after one profit has been made on them.

THE CELEBRATED CUMMINS' PLOW.

Call and see them.

MINOR & HORTON PLOWS, CASTINGS, & PLOWS of all kinds, HARROWS, &c.

To enumerate, in detail, my stock of various implements, used for farming purposes, would require too much space and make the perusal tedious; suffice it to say, that I have, at all times, a full supply of everything used by the Agriculturalist from a Plowshare to a well-regulated portable Steam Engine.

☞ All articles guaranteed to give satisfaction, or may be returned at the expiration of a reasonable time for trial. I have established in connexion with my Agricultural Warehouse, and I am prepared to Repair Agricultural Machinery in the best manner and at the shortest notice.

A Repairing Shop,

SWAN ISLAND GUANO!

A Phosphatic, Organic and Ammoniate

GUANO,

IMPORTED BY THE

SWAN ISLAND GUANO COMPANY.

THE undersigned, exclusive agent for the District for the sale of this valuable Fertilizer, would inform the farmers who intend purchasing Guano for use this fall, that he has a full supply now on hand.

This Guano is very rich in phosphates and has sufficient ammonia to make it active. It is in such condition as not to need any preparation for the drill.

PRICE Moderate.—Give it a Trial.

VARIOUS FERTILIZERS always on hand. Call at the Guano Depot, No. 519 7th St.,

BAUGH'S

RAW-BONE

SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

ANALYSIS:

7 to 8 Per Cent. of Ammonia, and
54 Per Cent. Bone-Phosphate of Lime.

FOR FALL SEEDING it is a most invaluable manure, being made from pure Raw-Bone.

IT ACTS DIRECTLY—bringing forward the young shoots of the grain and grass, giving them a vigorous growth, healthy color, and imparting strength and stamina.

IT IMPROVES THE LAND PERMANENTLY. It does not, like Peruvian Guano, stimulate the growing crop, and leave the soil exhausted, but leaves the land permanently benefitted.

FARMERS AND PLANTERS GIVE IT A TRIAL.

It is rapidly working its way into favor, and is a reliable fertilizer.

Price $45 per ton of 2,000 lbs., in Baltimore. In strong sacks of 160 lbs. each.
