

Poetry.
A Country Home,
O give me a home in the country wide,
And a roof by the farmer's wood shade,
When the fire burns bright,
On a frosty night,
When the birds sing and the laugh is free,
O the farmer's home is the home for me.
O give me a home in the country wide,
When the earth comes out in a blushing pride;
With her buds and flowers,
In the bright spring hours,
Her birds sing from the leafy trees
And poultry coo on the perfumed breeze.
In summer a seat in a shady nook,
And close by the side of a sparkling brook,
Where the violet grows,
Or the pale swamy rose,
Fainting, sick, beneath a scorching beam
Dips her pale petals in the cooling stream.
O give me a home in the country wide,
In the golden days of a farmer's pride,
When his barns are filled,
From the fields he tilled,
And he feels that his yearly task is done,
And smiling at winter, he beckons his son.

ATTENTION.
ALL YE LOVERS OF GOOD COFFEE!
Save your Money, and always have Good Coffee!
This can be done by using one of HERMAN'S Celebrated Coffee Roasters!

THIS is a little invention that every woman requires, as a domestic economy and convenience. The coffee roasted in this machine is not only better and healthier, but much stronger, as the aroma is retained and not destroyed in the roasting. It therefore requires less coffee.
One pound of coffee can be roasted in from ten to twelve minutes, and two pounds in twenty minutes. It is so constructed, that the coffee is roasted in motion, and is exposed to the same degree of heat, and is thus roasted evenly. The coffee is roasted in a glass window, so that you can see the coffee as it roasts, and you can stop it at any time, and you can see the coffee as it roasts, and you can stop it at any time, and you can see the coffee as it roasts, and you can stop it at any time.

1. The London Quarterly (Conservative).
2. The Edinburgh Review (Whig).
3. The North British Review (F. Chubb).
Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine ( Tory).
The present critical state of European affairs will render these publications unusually interesting during the forthcoming year. They will occupy a middle ground between the usually written news-items, crude speculations, and flying rumors of the daily journal, and the ponderous tomes of the future historians, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away. It is to these periodicals that readers must look for the only readable, intelligible, and reliable history of current events, and as such, in addition to their well-established literary, scientific and historical character, we urge them upon the consideration of the reading public.
The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers at as low a price as the original editions.
