BALTIMORE
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1864.

We are sorry to find, that there is a little probability that any arrangement will be made to insure union to the efforts of the friends of administration, at the approaching election, by the two gentlemen, of this city [or the particular friends of those gentlemen] who have been nominated as candidates for elector of a president and vice president. We hoped, nay we expected, and anxiously looked for such an event—And, indeed we did suppose, that but a small portion of patriotism or love of principle was requisite to effect it.

It is a matter of the utmost consequence to the republican interest of this state; for, if both persist in a determination to stand as candidates, it may furnish the means of success to our political opponents, and again give them cause of triumph. It is not a struggle for xxx, but for that PRINCIPLE for which we have long contended, and if we suffer a defeat, a SHAMEFUL DEFEAT, the blame will rest with those who have the power to prevent it.

Those who have long endeavored by hocus focis to succeed in governing the people of the United States, tho' silent now, are secretly endeavoring to push themselves forward, and may defeat the known will of the majority. And those who have the welfare of their country at heart and are friendly to the administration of Mr. Jefferson, must now perceive, with regret, the unprecedented division of the republicans at so momentous a crisis. They themselves open the doors to intrigue and division, and will eventually defeat those very measures to which they would seem to be friendly.—A shame on the disunion stigma on those republicans, who would permit that object to be effected, who could not readily be prevented.—THE ELECTION OF AN ANTI-REPUBLICAN ELECTOR FOR PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT.

It is quite possible, that if one of the present candidates does not decline, defeat may be the result; for, supposing the district to poll 4000 votes—the republican candidate A might obtain 2500 votes—the anti-republican C 1500 which would give A 1000 majority, and of course elect A—However A and B are both respectable republicans and stands as candidates—B receives 1100 votes, which deducted from the number A would receive, standing alone leave him but 1400, and of course C with 1500 votes would be elected, as he would have the highest number; though far short of a majority.

We ought to reflect seriously on this interesting subject and endeavor to devise some plan to prevent our enemies from gaining a vote on the important election of president and vice president—as we have it so completely in our power.

Candidates for Electors for this district.
JOHN JOHNSON,
GEORGE P. KEEPORTS,
EDWARD JOHNSON; the two last named are proposed for this city, of whom only ONE can be elected.
Republicans! Remember—United we stand, divided we fall!

CHARLES CAMERON, has been constituted and appointed Captain General and Governor in Chief in and over His Majesty's Bahama Islands, and the Garrison there, or that may be sent thither, in the room of His Excellency John Harkitt.

His excellency Charles Cameron, Esq. Captain General and Governor in Chief of the Bahama Islands, &c. &c. has issued a proclamation notifying all his Britannic Majesty's liege subjects that it has been signified to him by a dispatch from the right honorable Lord Hobart, one of his Majesty's principal secretaries of state, bearing date the 29th of April last, that his Majesty has been pleased to declare, that the Islands called TURK'S ISLANDS, are a part of the Bahama Islands, and that the Legislative authority of the Bahama Islands, extend over the said Islands called Turk's Islands, and signifying his Majesty's pleasure, that his Royal declaration to that effect be published and made known within this government.

Dated at Nassau, N. P. October 1, 1864.
(Signed) CHARLES CAMERON.

Married on Tuesday evening last, by the Revd. Mr. Richards, Mr. Ebenezer Graves, to Miss Rebecca Clark; both of this city.

Departed this life on Saturday evening last, in the 33d year of her age, after an illness of 8 days, borne with uncommon resignation and christian fortitude, Mrs. Mary Hober, wife of Mr. Frederick Heubert of this city. She has left a disconsolate husband and 4 small children, to deplore her early loss.

CORONATION CARRIAGE.—The following description is given of the superb coronation of the Emperor Napoleon I.—On the doors are emblazoned the arms of the Empire. The roof is supported by four allegorical figures, and in the middle of it is raised an altar, on which is placed the crown of Charles X. or one modelled upon the crown of that prince, and supported by four eagles. The body of the carriage is decorated with a frieze, stuck with a number of medallions, representing the different departments of the empire, and connected together by a chain of palm wreaths of the most finished elegance. The housings and the fringe are besprinkled with the bees of the first race of the kings of France. The harnesses are of red morocco, decorated with worked bronze and ornamented with eagles' heads and other analogous emblems.

The Gazette of last evening states that "M. Jerome Bonaparte and his fair spouse have at length taken their departure for France"—and adds, "He attended the theatre on Thursday night last with his lady, and when the play was over they repaired on board a packet at one of the wharves, which had been engaged for the purpose, and proceeded down to North Point, where, with one or two of her relations, who accompany them to France, they were put on board the fast-sailing schooner Cordelia, captain Tower, which had been fitted up and ballasted for the purpose."

We are not sufficiently acquainted with the secret movements of Jerome Bonaparte, to say, whether the foregoing statement is, or is not correct; but if correct, it then declares the first paragraph under our Philadelphia head, a fabrication.

For the information of the voters for electors of President and Vice President, we have deemed it proper to publish such extracts from the election laws as may be necessary to facilitate the business of the ensuing election.

For the purpose of choosing ELEVEN Electors of President and Vice President the state has been by law (1862, c. 70 sec. 2) divided into NINE districts as follows:—

THE FIRST DISTRICT
Is composed of St. Mary's county, Charles county and the Fifth election district of Prince Georges county, generally called Piscataway district, which elects ONE elector.

THE SECOND DISTRICT
Is composed of Prince Georges county, except Piscataway district, and the third and fourth election districts of Montgomery county, called the Montgomery election district and Thomas's election district, which elects ONE elector.

THE THIRD DISTRICT
Is composed of the remainder of Montgomery county, Anne Arundel county and the city of Annapolis and city of Baltimore, which elects TWO electors.

THE FOURTH DISTRICT
Is composed of Frederick county, Washington county and Allegany county, which elects TWO electors.

THE FIFTH DISTRICT
Is composed of Baltimore county, which alone elects ONE elector.

THE SIXTH DISTRICT
Is composed of Harford county & Cecil county, which elects ONE elector.

THE SEVENTH DISTRICT
Is composed of Kent county and Queens Anne's county, which elects ONE elector.

THE EIGHTH DISTRICT
Is composed of Talbot county, Caroline county and the first election district of Dorchester county, which elects ONE elector.

THE NINTH DISTRICT
Is composed of the remainder of Dorchester county, Somerset county and Worcester county, which elects ONE elector.

The electors shall be residents of the respective districts for which they may be elected.

ODD NAMES.—At Huntingdon assizes for 1619, the upright judge Doddrige, it seems, reproved the sheriff for not having returned persons on the jury who were of sufficient respectability. The sheriff, however took care against the next assizes, to present the following singular list, at which the judge smiled, at the same time applauding his ingenious industry.

Maximilian King of Torland
Henry Prince of Godmanchester
George Duke of Somersham
William Marquis of Stukely
Edward Earl of Hartford
Robert Lord of Walsley
Richard Baron of Bythorpe
Edmond Knight of St. Nicols
Peter Esquire of Aston
George Gentleman of Spaldock
Robert Yeoman of Barham
Stephen Pope of Weston
Humphrey Cardinal of Rimbolton
William Bishop of Bugden
John Archdeakon of Paxton
John Abbot of Stukely
Richard Friar of Ellington
Henry Monk of Stukely
Edward Priest of Graftsm
Richard Deacon of Catsworth

Information from Charleston, states that Robert Marion, the Republican candidate for representative in Congress, has succeeded over Thomas R. Smith, the federal candidate, by a considerable majority. This is, we believe, the first instance in which that city has been represented by a republican, since the establishment of the present constitution. Notwithstanding the reproach so lavishly thrown upon the present administration, that they are unfriendly to commerce, it is not a little extraordinary that the five great commercial towns are represented in Congress by republican members.

A meeting of the inhabitants of the Western Precincts is requested, at Mr. Fulton's tavern, on THURSDAY next, in the afternoon, at three o'clock, to consider on the expediency of petitioning the Legislature, for a law for the better regulation of the said precincts. October 31.

American Manufacture.
CALICOES, Furniture Cottons, Shawls and Pocket Handkerchiefs printed and sold by the subscribers, at No. 73, C. Iver street.
To remove a distrust experienced in new undertakings, and often prejudicial to manufacturing attempts in America; they think it proper to observe, that nothing material is wanted in the business to enable good artists to perform the work here, as well as in Europe. That they have these artists—that two of the partners were bred to the business in a family of the best repute, carried on by their father, and long afterwards by themselves. They trust that while foreign goods are sold without a question, an unreasonable suspicion will not prevent help countrymen from giving an equal trial to such as are wrought among themselves.—Beside a natural doubt, there is room to fear, that certain interests, national, as well as individual, may suggest objections to their undertaking.—It is necessary therefore to say, that work of the like kind, shall be as well executed here, as by the reign standard abroad. The color capable of being fixed will be found as permanent, the cloths perhaps of better substance, and the prices lower than of the imported cottons.
The customary credit will be given on good notes or acceptances to the bill.
