Preparatory Assembly,

Under the direction of Mr. DUPONT. The utility of private calls preparatory to the general public assemblies of the city, is so generally acknowledged among polite circles as to require no comment. The desire which Mr. D. feels to deserve and obtain the encouragement of his friends, has induced him to attempt their establishment during the present season; having procured from Paris a regular supply of the most fashionable Cotillions, the more appropriate of which he proposes to introduce into the preparatory assembly, on the following

CONDITIONS:

1 There will be six assemblies; to be held once every fortnight, on such evening as may be agreed upon by the subscribers.

2 On the evening previous to each of the above assemblies, there will be a free practising night on the newest cotillions, for such as may please to attend.

3 Each subscriber to pay 6 dollars on receiving his ticket of admission, whether he subscribes before or after the first ball, and to have the privilege of obtaining a ladies' ticket each evening.

4 The managers for each ball to be appointed by the subscribers.

As soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained, a meeting will be called to arrange the rules and regulations of the assemblies.

Subscription books are left at Mr. Joseph Carr's music store, corner of Market and Gas-streets, and at Mr. Hill's book-store, 104, Market-street, and will remain open till the 15th inst.

December 4

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, from on board the brig Sophia, in October last, a bright mulatto man, who calls himself WILLIAM HILL. He is 24 years of age, about 6 feet 1 inch high, has a large scar under his left eye and a down look when spoken to—fond of spirituous liquors. As the above fellow has taken with him a number of clothes, it is not necessary to describe his dress, as it is probable he may change it.

Sterling Plate.

Charles L. Boehme,
No. 126, MARKET-STREET, BALTIMORE,

CONJURES to manufacture his goods of sterling silver at nearly one third less price than that which is imported. He has now in his employ several of the best workmen, some of whom have worked in the first manufactories in London, which enables him, to have his work executed in the neatest and most masterly manner. From the moderate price, the elegance of his work, and the superior quality of his silver to that generally manufactured in America, he flatters himself he will secure a preference. He has just received an elegant assortment of London jewelry, consisting of gold earrings and necklaces of various patterns, do. bias pins and bracelets, lockets, bracelets and finger-rings, and from former importations, plated candle sticks, brackets, castors, snuffers and trays, japanned castors, urns and castors, silver and silver spectacles, silver butter and cheese knives, silver coral & bells. He has also for sale of his own manufacturing, coffee and tea pots, sugar dishes, stop basons and cream ewers in sets. Also, soup table dessert, tea spoons and sugar tongs, all of which will match.

He carries on the Clock and Watch making as usual, and has also received an assortment of gold and silver watch a plain capped and capped and jeweled all of which are warranted. Also gentlemen and ladies' watch chains, seals and keys of the newest patterns. Clocks or watches which he may be interested with to repair will be carefully executed at the shortest notice and warranted to perform well. The above will be sold at moderate prices for cash or exceptions in town at short dates.

Wanted two journeymen Silver Smith Plate Workers. Also, two or three lads about fifteen or sixteen years of age, and of good connections, will be taken as apprentices.
October 20.

Classical and Mathematical

SCHOOL.

THE Rev. Mr. ALLEN, of Harford county, proposes to Board 12 young gentlemen, and instruct them in the Latin, Greek and French languages; the English language grammatically, the mathematics in all its branches, as geometry, trigonometry, algebra, navigation, surveying, geography and the use of the globes, &c. and reading, writing and arithmetic.

He returns thanks to those who have before honored him with the care of their children, and trusts his former assiduity and success in this line, is the best pledge for his future conduct.

The situation is rural, retired, and very healthy, with excellent water, within one mile and half of Bush or Harford, which is on the post road between Baltimore and Philadelphia, about 24 miles from the former. For terms apply to Wm Wilson & Sons, Baltimore, or at the School, which will commence the 14th January.

LIFE & MILITARY ACHIEVEMENTS

OF

Toussaint Louverture

LATE GENERAL IN CHIEF OF THE ARMY OF HAITI

From the year 1792, until the arrival of Gen. Le Clerc, with an impartial, accurate, and interesting detail of his military and political conduct during the whole of that period, diversified with a narrative of the interesting to the slave, and West Indian, and the history of his imprisonment and death, a melancholy and interesting narrative of the rapacious, tyrannical and oppressive conduct of Gen. Le Clerc, until the death of Rochambeau's soldiers, until the fall of 1803.
