Land for sale.

A PART of that very valuable tract of LAND, formerly the property and residence of John Mercer Porter, deceased—situated in Baltimore county, in Back Creek, and about 14 miles from the city—containing 229 acres of strong fertile land, a great part of which is in a high state of cultivation; 14 acres of excellent timothy meadow, and about 20 acres more may be added at a very small expense—The improvements are of wood, lately erected, and such as would suit for farm houses—The part in wood, which is at least equal to the support of the place, abounds in lofty white oaks, interspersed with hickory. This property will be sold part for cash, and part for credit, or bar-tered for approved property in the city of Baltimore. It is presumed a purchaser will view the premises, therefore it is unnecessary to give any further description of them. Peregrine Porter, adjacent to the premises, will show them, and treat for the sale thereof—or, if more convenient to purchasers, apply to
Wm. C. GOULDSMITH,

The last sailing Ship

MARYLAND,
Burthen per register 462 tons; she was built at Fell's Point 4 years ago, under the inpection of several gentlemen appointed for that purpose, and has been lately fitted in Europe, where no pains or expense was spared to make her complete, she is is copper fastened, and has been newly coppered with thirty four and thirty six ounce best English copper, and that so high, when she is deep loaded, to be even with the water. This ship is calculated in a superior manner for an Indianian, carrying her boats, canvas, and 18 guns if required, under a light spar, deck, her cables, one suit of sails, and principal materials were all new when she left Europe.
Indeed, she is in complete order to receive a cargo and to be sent to any part of the world, with out any additional expense, except victualing and manning. Those persons desiring to purchase, are requested to view her cargo, visiting prior to the day of sale, at the wharf at Captain Stiles's wharf, Fell's Point. Her inventory may be seen at our auction room.

Defence of Simon Wilmer.
"Crest Cows, about horses, great Yucca has wisely given,
Less they may hurt the chosen ones of Heaven!"

ADVERTISEMENT,
I sincerely regret that my finances are so far below par at present, that I cannot defray the expenses of my pamphlet of defence, against the malicious charges which have obliterated my character for several months past; and I must therefore bear the mortification of offering it for sale.
It is to be recollected, my friends and fellow-citizens, that the style is dictated by feelings without a critical reference to orthography, and as it has been composed no faster than the printers have furnished me with proof sheets, I hope to escape unfriendly remarks. The manuscript pamphlet I have so long promised for public trial, is entirely superseded by this which contains fact and misfortune—that was composed, merely to gratify the spleen of the moment!
And I now presume to recommend my volume of painful events to the husband who loves his wife, and then let him contrast happiness with misery.
To the father who has sons maturing to manhood, in order to fortify the expanding mind against the shifts and hypocrisy of great little mankind.
To the religious, whose piety is at war with the snares of Satan.
To the merchant, whose negotiations for the convenience of friendship subject him to the suspicion of forgery.
To the mechanic, whose labors are unrewarded, by the frozen put of "call again." To the shaver who extorts usury in violation of divine and human laws.
And lastly, to my brother victims to shavery in order to know that Malice have got the monies, but that law was favorable to the christian distress.
The public's obedient servant,
SIMON WILMER.
P. S. If my language against any of my persecutors is considered rash by my readers, I must invite them to embrace those feelings, which have naturally resulted from the most painful scenes, that persecution ever created against a fellow man.
