Ten Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber, living on Fell's Point, the 25th December last, a Negro woman, named ROSE, about 30 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, thick lips, and a down look when spoken to. Took with her the following clothing—a new coarse linen shirt, a new sea blue flannel petticoat, a new blue cloth outside ditto, a moted calico gown, without an apron; a blue and white cross-hatched cotton handkerchief, a pair of grey yarn stockings, a pair of men's shoes, and a small round brown hat. She has been seen frequently skulking about the Point, but as she has relations in Harford county, it is likely she has gone there, as she has been brought from thence to Baltimore several times, when she had run away. Whoever brings her home, or secures her in any jail, so that I get her again, shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable charges paid.
GEORGE WILSON, ship joiner, said negro Rose at their peril.

Columbian Inn—continued.
ISAAC CAUSTEN
Respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known house, the Columbian Inn, one door above the corner of Howard street Baltimore-street.

To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property, nothing need be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers, &c.
To this extensive establishment, I. Causten solicits the patronage of his friends and a generous public, and begs leave to assure them a very thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation.

The fast sailing Ship
MARYLAND, Burthen per register 46 tons; she was built at Fell's Point 4 years ago, under the inspection of several gentlemen appointed for that purpose, and has been lately fitted in Europe, where no pains or expense was spared to make her complete. She is copper fastened, and has been newly coppered with thirty four and thirty six ounce best English copper, and that so high, when she is deep loaded, to be even with the water. This ship is calculated in a superior manner for an Indiaman, carrying her boats, camboes, and 18 guns if required, under a light spare deck; her cables, one suit of sails, and principal materials were all new when she left Liverpool.
Indeed, she is in complete order to receive a cargo and may be sent to any part of the world without any additional expence, except victualling and manning. Those persons disposed to purchase, are requested to have her closely visited prior to the day of sale; she lays at Captain Stiles's wharf, Fell's Point. After inventory may be seen at our auction room.

Simon Wilmer's Defence.
Will be Published, and for Sale, on Monday, the 18th instant, at the Book store of Vincent & Isaac Bonnal, No 19, Market-street, Sower & S. Cole's auction room, next door to Bryden's coffee house, Light-street; Warner & Hann's book-store, corner of Market and Gay-streets; Nathaniel Knight's book-stre, Fell's Point, and not elsewhere in Baltimore, —Price 50 cents, containing 118 pages.

Defence of Simon Wilmer.
"Gentle words, about words, great Jove has wisely given."
Let us try may burst the chosen ones of Heaven."

ADVERTISEMENT,
I sincerely regret that my finances are so far below par at present, that I cannot defray the expence of my pamphlet of defence, against the malicious charges which have been made my character for several months past; and I must therefore bear the mortification of offering it for sale.
It is to be regretted, my friends and well-wishers, that the style is dictated by feelings without a critical reference to orthograh, hy, and as it has been composed no faster than the printers have furnished me with proof sheets, I hope to escape unfriendly remarks. The manuscript pamphlet I have so long promised for public perusal, is entirely superseded by this which contains fact and misfortune—hat was composed merely to gratify the spleen of the moment!
And I now presume to recommend my volume of painful events to the husband who loves his wife, and then let him contrast happiness with misery.
To the father who has sons maturing to manhood, in order to fortify the expanding mind against the shifts and hypocrisy of great little mankind.
To the religious, whose piety is at war with the snares of Satan.
To the merchant, whose negotiations for the convenience of friendship subjected him to the suspicion of forgery To the mechanic, whose labors are unrewarded, by the frozen put of "call again." To the shaver who exerts usury in violation of divine and human laws.
And lastly, to my brother victims to slavery in order to know that Moses have got the monies, but that law was favorable to the christian distress.

The public's obedient servant,
SIMON WILMER.
P. S. If my language against any of my persecutors is considered rash by my readers, I must invite them to embrace those feelings, which have naturally resulted from the most painful scenes, that persecution ever created against a fellow man.

To the Voters
Of the City and County of Baltimore.
THE subscriber having been appointed Clerk of the Court of Oyer and Terminer and G. I. Delivery, for Baltimore county, begs leave to make his most grateful acknowledgements to his friends in particular, and the voters of Baltimore county in general, for their friendship manifested toward him whilst he was a candidate for the office of Sheriff; and informs them that in consequence of said appointment, he has declined offering as a candidate for the next Sheriff by, but anticipates the pleasure of being serviceable to them in a different department.
He remains, with the greatest regard and esteem,
Their obedient servant,
WM. S. SUMMERS,
February 16 d

To the Voters
Of the City and County of Baltimore.

GENTLEMEN,
HENRY TAPPANALL, at the last Election, was placed on the return by the disinterested approbation of his friends and well-wishers, and acknowledges, with grateful sensibility, the obligation he is under to their liberal and humane exertions in his favor; and he again begs leave to offer himself a candidate for the important office of SHERIFF of Baltimore county, at the next election to be held for that purpose—especially soliciting the favor and suffrages of the public generally, and also a continuance of that friendly disposition so lately manifested toward him; and he pledges himself, that should he be designated as your choice, he will render that satisfaction compatible with the duties required.
February 16 d

To the Voters of the city and county of Baltimore.
HAVING been encouraged by many of my friends in the city and county, to offer myself as a candidate to be put in nomination for the office of SHERIFF, at the ensuing election, I hope it will not be deemed improper thus early to signify my intention, and to solicit the patronage of my friends generally, and the voters of the city and county at large.
Those who have not a personal knowledge of me, will, on enquiry, find that I have been bred to business, and have been conversant in mercantile transactions from early life—Should my fellow-citizens think proper, at the expiration of the term of the present sheriff, to bestow on me the office, I trust my conduct therein will be such as will give satisfaction, if a diligent attention and a faithful discharge of the duties thereof, are capable of doing the same.
WILLIAM MERRIMAN,
Corner of Baltimore and Frederick-streets, February 16 d

To the Voters
Of the City and County of Baltimore.
GENTLEMEN,
BEING solicited by many friends, both in the city and county, to offer myself a candidate for the Office of SHERIFF, I have taken the liberty of soliciting your suffrages at the ensuing election, as I conceive myself qualified (from long experience as assistant to the present and two preceding sheriffs) to discharge the important duties attached to that office—My engagements will continue to prevent a personal application to each individual, whose approbation I am ambitious to possess; but if correctness, diligence, and every degree of humanity, consistent with the interest due to an indulgent public, are becoming requisites—I hope the want of a personal interview will be no material objection against it.
Public's humble servant,
JOHN HUNTER.
February 16 d

To the Voters
Of the City and County of Baltimore ENCOURAGED by many of my fellow ci-zens I am induced to declare myself a candidate for the office of SHERIFF, at the next election for that purpose—And should I be successful, I pledge myself that my best endeavors shall be used to discharge the duties attached to the office, with propriety, humanity and integrity.
I am,
The public's obt. & humble serv't.
ROBERT R. RICHARDSON.
