VENEREAL COMPLAINT

AS Dr. WARMER'S practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vendid or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time. As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.
Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicine so prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in diet or diet.
N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Bond-street, to Cumberland Row, No. 64, below the Marsh-market.

FOR THE COUNTRY.

IN consequence of repeated applications from different parts of the Union, the editor of the Freeman's Journal has been induced to make arrangements for printing a Gazette three times in the week, to be entitled The Freeman's Journal for the Country.

To the Voters of the city and county of Baltimore.

HAVING been encouraged by many of my friends in the city and county, to offer myself as a candidate to be put in nomination for the office of SHERIFF, at the ensuing election, I hope it will not be deemed improper thus early to signify my intention, and to solicit the patronage of my friends generally, and the voters of the city and county at large.
Those who have not a personal knowledge of me, will, on enquiry, find that I have been bred to business, and have been conversant in mercantile transactions from early life—Should my fellow-citizens think proper, at the expiration of the time of the present sheriff, to bestow on me the office, I trust my conduct therein will be such as will give satisfaction, if a diligent attention and a faithful discharge of the duties thereof, are capable of doing the same.

Trial of Samuel Chase, esqr.

THE very liberal Patronage the publishers have received, induces them to forward the work with all expedition—the 1st No of the Trial is now at press, and will be published early in the next week—it will contain the opening of the Court of Impeachment, with a description of it; the preparatory arguments; Mr. Chase's speech and affidavit to put off trial; the speech of Mr. Randolph in behalf of the managers, at its commencement and the examination of the witnesses in support of the charges exhibited by the House of Representatives.
It is contemplated in binding the volume to have the trial to precede the documents; therefore the Articles of Impeachment, the Answer and Pleas, and the Exhibits, &c. will be bound at the end.
The publishers pledge themselves to have the work finished with that expedition compatible with the importance of it; and being a trial which interests the whole community, it may hereafter be of the greatest utility from its calling into action the whole force of the professional legal talents this country can boast. To the gentlemen of the bar, 'tis more than interesting, 'tis a valuable acquisition to the jurisprudence of this country. In vain may the young student pore over the musty leaves of a Præcticon, or with the utmost attention turn over the pages of all the year books and journals of the British Parliament, without finding precedent doctrine congenial to the times we live in: But the day is not far distant when the talents of the American bar, may soar above the prejudice of monarchical precedents, and by fostering the talents of all unconnected with party, raise precedents suitable to the virtue, genius and liberties of a free people.
Subscribers to this work will be received by George Keatinge, at the book-store of Samuel Butler, and at the office of the American.

RAN away from the subscriber on the 23d of February last a Negro lad named JIM, 19 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, square built, black brown complexion, a small scar under one of his eyes and had one on each cheek, the white of his eyes are mixed with a yellowish red, and a good countenance; he has a hurt in one of his legs which is not perceivable unless he walks quick. His dress when he went away was a blue bairie outside jacket lined with green, longer than common—a blue inside ditto half worn, a grey farnight pair of breeches, a coarse shirt, white yarn stockings and two pair of shoes. He is an artful villain and will change both name and dress, and will endeavor (through the means of his father who lives on Fall's Point) to pass for a free man and no doubt will enter on board some vessel as such. This is the 5th time he has run off—He ran away the 3d of January 1801, and was caught in York county, Pennsylvania, and lodged in Little York jail. If he is taken upon Maryland I will pay fifty dollars and reasonable expenses if brought and delivered to me—if in any other state the above reward, and all reasonable expenses on his being delivered to

The above Lottery is intended to raise a sum of money, in addition to the liberal subscription heretofore obtained, for building the second Presbyterian Church in this city.

The laudable purpose to which this money is to be applied, together with the advantages in a pecuniary view, which must appear obvious to adventurers, cannot fail to produce a ready sale of the tickets.

It is expected the drawing will commence the first week in September, or sooner, if a sufficient number of tickets are disposed of. All Prizes in this Lottery will be paid, without deduction, in sixty days after the drawing is completed—Prizes not demanded within twelve months after the drawing is finished, will be considered as generously relinquished for the benefit of the church.

The Managers respectfully solicit the aid of the public to accomplish the object of the above Lottery—Considerable exertions for several years having been already made by an association of ladies, for the education of poor orphans of all denominations—Teachers in every part of the city have been paid quarterly for the schooling of children, and in some instances assisted with necessary clothes, from the precarious resources of subscriptions, public and private donations, charity sermons, &c.
The legislature of Maryland have been pleased to grant a lottery to raise a fund upon more stable and permanent principles, for the support of this institution; and the mayor and city council, in sanctioning it by an ordinance, have also given a very honorable testimony of their good wishes, by relinquishing the customary tax... The Managers therefore confidently hope, that the above scheme, as well from the benevolence of its intention, as the principle of adventure, will be inviting to every citizen, in this or any other part of the United States. Adventurers in this lottery, while they feel a conscientious and consoling reflection of having thereby contributed their mite to the permanent establishment of a Free School, for the education of poor children, male and female, of every denomination; will also in a pecuniary point of view, experience advantages superior to any other scheme heretofore offered.

For the convenience of purchasers, the managers have thought proper to strike off the tickets in halves, leaving it optional with the purchaser to take the whole or half ticket.
The managers have given bond for the faithful performance of their trust.

Sixty days after the drawing is finished the prizes will be paid, subject to a deduction of 12 1-2 per cent.—if not demanded within 12 months after the drawing is finished, they will be considered as relinquished for the orphans.

As the above Scheme offers every possible encouragement to adventurers, from the many valuable Prizes it contains, and there being considerably less than two Blanks to a Prize, and all Prizes payable in 60 days after the drawing of the Lottery is completed without any deduction, the Managers entertain the greatest hopes of such a speedy sale of the Tickets, as may enable them to commence drawing without loss of time.
