Ten Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber, living on Fell's Point, the 25th December last, a Negro woman, named ROSE, about 30 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, thick lips, and a down look when spoken to. Took with her the following clothing—a new coarse linen shift, a new scarlet flannel petticoat, a new blue cloth outside ditto, a mottled calico gown, without an apron; a blue and white cross-barred cotton handkerchief, a pair of grey yarn stockings, a pair of men's shoes, and a small round brown hat. She has been seen frequently skulking about the Point, but as she has relations in Harford county, it is likely she has gone there, as she has been brought from thence to Baltimore several times, when she had run away. Whoever brings her home, or secures her in any jail, so that I get her again, shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable charges paid.
GEORGE WILSON, ship joiner, said negro Rose at their peril.

—Price 50 cents, containing 168 pages,
A
Defence of Simon Wilmer.

"Great Cows, about horns, great Yee bar wisely given,
Lest they may hurt the chosen ones of Heaven."

ADVERTISEMENT,
I sincerely regret that my finances are so far below par at present, that I cannot defray the expenses of my pamphlet of defence, against the malicious charges which have obliquely and my character for several months past; and I must therefore bear the mortification of offering it for sale.
It is to be recollected, my friends and fellow-citizens, that the style is dictated by feelings without a critical reference to orthography, and as it has been composed no faster than the printers have furnished me with proof sheets, I hope to escape unfriendly remarks. The manuscript pamphlet I have so long promised for public perusal, is entirely superceded by this which contains fact and misfortune—that was composed merely to gratify the spleen of the moment!
And I now presume to recommend my volume of painful events to the husband who loves his wife, and then let him contrast happiness with misery.
To the father who has sons maturing to manhood, in order to fortify the expanding mind against the shifts and hypocrisy of great title making.
To the religious, whose piety is at war with the snares of Satan.
To the merchant, whose negotiations for the convenience of friendship subjected him to the suspicion of forgery.
To the mechanic, whose labors are unrewarded, by the frozen purci call again.
To the shaver who extorts money in violation of divine and human laws.
And lastly, to my brother victims to slavery in order to know that Moroses have got the monies, but that law was favorable to the christian distress.
The public's obedient servant,
SIMON WILMER.
P. S. If my language against any of my persecutors is considered rash by my readers, I must invite them to embrace those feelings, which have naturally resulted from the most painful scenes, that persecution ever created against a fellow man.
