VENEREAL COMPLAINTS
Dr. WARNER'S practice has been very extensive both in public and private, and his experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine now used or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Some patients of the venereal disease, and venereal disease, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.

As there are persons from various causes, cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.
Dr. W. examines in all cases. He uses of venereal and venereal may have their medicine prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in diet or diet.

Dr. W. Dr. Warner has removed from his residence, to Cumberland Row, No. 64, New York street.

Those who have no personal knowledge of me, will, on enquiry, find that I have been bred to business, and have been conversant in mercantile transactions from early life—Should my fellow-citizens think proper, at the expiration of the time of the present sheriff, to bestow on me the office, I trust my conduct therein will be such as will give satisfaction, if a diligent attention and a faithful discharge of the duties thereof, are capable of doing the same.

Horse Stolen!
FORTY DOLLARS REWARD.
WAS stolen on Monday night, the 25th instant, out of the subscriber's stable, at his place opposite Mr. George Beams's tavern, on the Reister's town road, a light colored HORSE, between 15 and 16 hands high, 7 years old—his hind feet are white up to the fetlock, and one of them much more than the other; the pasture joint of his right fore foot is considerably thicker than the other; has a white strip on the nose, a long neck, small head, and switch tail, and is a very gay looking horse, and has a good deal of the blood or English bred—trots remarkably fast or slow, and has no other gait. He was mostly used in a wagon, and has every mark of a wagon horse. On the same night the above horse was taken, a saddle and bridle and a blanket was stolen out of Mr. Beams's stable. Whoever takes up said horse and brings him to the subscriber, shall receive 20 dollars, or on delivering the horse and cowling the same, shall be entitled to the above reward, paid by 100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber on the 25th of February last a Negro lad named JIM, 19 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, square built, black brown complexion, a small scar under one of his eyes and had one on each cheek, the white of his eyes are mixed with a yellowish red, and a good countenance; he has a hurt in one of his legs, which is not perceptible unless he walks back. His dress when he went away was a blue baize under jacket lined with green, longer than common—a blue inside ditto half worn, a grey farnight pair of breeches, a coarse short, white yarn stockings and two pair of shoes. He is an artful villain and will endeavor (through the means of his father who lives on Fell's Point) to pass for a free man and no doubt will enter on board some vessel as such. This is the 5th time he has run off—He ran away the 31 of January 1801, and was caught in York county, Pennsylvania, and lodged in Little York jail. If he is taken up in Maryland and paid fifty dollars and reasonable expenses if brought and delivered to me—if in any other state he shall be entitled to the above reward, and all reasonable expenses on his being delivered to
Wm. STENSON.

CRUDEN'S CONCORDANCE.
PROPOSALS
By Kimber, Conrad & Co.
For Publishing by Subscription that Valuable Work, entitled A COMPLETE CONCORDANCE TO THE Holy Scriptures OF THE OLD & NEW TESTAMENT; OR A DICTIONARY & ALPHABETICAL INDEX TO THE BIBLE.
Very useful to all Christians who seriously read and study the inspired writings. In two parts—containing,
I. The appellative or common words, in so full and large a manner, that any verse may be readily found by looking for any material word in it. In this part the various significations of the principal words are given, by which the true meaning of many passages of Scripture is shown—an account of several Jewish customs and ceremonies is also added, which may serve to illustrate many parts of Scripture.
II. Proper names in the Scriptures—To this part is prefixed a table, containing the significations of words in the original languages from which they are derived.

To which is added,
A CONCORDANCE TO THE BOOKS CALLED APOCRYPHA.
The whole digested in an easy and regular method; which, together with the various significations and other improvements now added, renders it more useful than any book of the kind hitherto published.

The lands on purpose to which this money is to be applied, together with the advantages in a pecuniary view, which must appear obvious to adventurers, cannot fail to produce a ready sale of the tickets.

The tickets to be sold in Halves, at five dollars each.

The Managers respectfully solicit the aid of the public to accomplish the object of the above Lottery—Considerable exertions for several years having been already made by an association of ladies, for the education of poor orphans of all denominations—Teachers in every part of the city have been paid quarterly for the schooling of children, and in some instances assisted with necessary clothes, from the precarious resources of subscriptions, public and private donations, charity sermons, &c.

The legislature of Maryland have been pleased to grant a lottery to raise a fund upon more stable and permanent principles, for the support of this institution; and the mayor and city council, in sanctioning it by an ordinance, have also given a very honorable testimony of their good wishes, by relinquishing the customary tax on the Lottery—The Managers therefore confidently hope, that the above scheme, as well from the benevolence of its intention, as the principle of adventure, will be inviting to every citizen, in this or any other part of the United States. Adventurers in this lottery, while they feel a conscientious and consoling reflection of having thereby contributed their mite to the permanent establishment of a Free School, for the education of poor children, male and female, of every denomination; will also in a pecuniary point of view, experience advantages superior to any other scheme heretofore offered.

For the convenience of purchasers, the managers have thought proper to strike off the tickets in halves, leaving it optional with the purchaser to take the whole or half ticket.

The managers have given bond for the faithful performance of their trust.

Sixty days after the drawing is finished the prizes will be paid, subject to a deduction of 12 1/2 per cent.—if not demanded within 12 months after the drawing is finished, they will be considered as relinquished for the orphans.

RAN away from the subscriber, last March was twelve months, a Negro man named ROBERT, but generally called Bob—he is about 30 years of age, 6 feet high, of a yellowish complexion, with a large scar on his instep, from a burn, with remarkable small legs and thighs, but very large feet; uncommon thick lips, a good set of teeth, & a large head—he passed as a free negro manumitted by the Hunt's; he was living near Baltimore for near 9 months past, with a free mulatto woman as his wife—they have both moved of late down the neck in the wood-cutting, but supposed if gone further, to be in the Wood-cutting near Joppa. It is likely he will be in Town or at the Point in the holidays to see his acquaintances. No doubt is entertained but what he has a forged pass.
