Ten Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber, living on Fell's Point, the 25th December last, a Negro woman, named ROSE, about 30 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, thick lips, and a down look when spoken to. Took with her the following clothing—a new coarse linen shift, a new scarlet flannel petticoat, a new blue cloth outside ditto, a mottled calico gown, without an apron; a blue and white cross-barred cotton handkerchief, a pair of grey yarn stockings, a pair of men's shoes, and a small round brown hat. She has been seen frequently skulking about the Point, but as she has relations in Harford county, it is likely she has gone there, as she has been brought from thence to Baltimore several times, when she had run-away. Whoever brings her home, or secures her in any jail, so that I get her again, shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable charges paid.
GEORGE WILSON, ship joiner,
No. 22, Ann-street, F. Point.

EVENING POST,
AND MERCANTILE DAILY ADVERTISER.
THE editor is under the necessity of informing the public, that owing to a disappointment arising from a quantity of type not arriving agreeably to expectation, the publication of the Evening Post is again delayed for a few days. It is with regret that he has so long exercised the patience of his friends, but he is happy now to say that every preparation has been made, and everything necessary insured to render this establishment deserving of that patronage which he has already received by a large number of subscribers; and which, in the article of a verticements, he presumes to anticipate. The patrons of this paper are therefore assured, that the first number will POSITIVELY be issued on Monday the 25th of March. J. COOK & Co.
A CARD.
The respective editors of newspapers in the United States, who may be disposed to exchange with the Evening Post, will render an obligation by forwarding their papers as early as possible, in order for the arrangement of our exchange list, so as to insure their receipt of the first
