

Judge Chase's Trial.

THE proceedings on this trial are now publishing in this city, by subscription, in one large super-royal octavo volume. A copy-right for the same has been obtained, of which the editors of the American are one-third proprietors; and they solicit such of their friends as may desire to possess the work to forward them their names, at an early period. The price cannot be correctly ascertained until the publication has further progressed; but is calculated it will not exceed two dollars and fifty cents, to subscribers; payable on delivery, in boards.

"Civil-War in Ireland."

S. BUTLER & PECHIN & FRAILEY

RESPECTFULLY inform the subscribers, in this city, for the "History of the Civil War in Ireland," &c. &c. that the work is now prepared, and will be published and ready for delivery, before the first of May next. Subscriptions will be received until that period, after which, as the edition is rather limited, if any copies are left, the price shall be enhanced—Of 1500 copies, 1,000 are now subscribed for.

Will be Sold,

AT Public Vendue, on Monday, the 29th day of April next, on the premises, a valuable LOT OF GROUND and improvements on York street, a continuation of Baltimore street, east of Jones's Falls and near the new Presbyterian Church. It fronts 5 feet on York and runs back to Salisbury street about 160 feet. The improvements are a new brick back building, of about 30 by 16 feet, covered with slate and finished in a substantial and neat manner. The cellars for a front house of 25 by 53 feet is well up and the joint laid on a stone window frame and sash are on hand, as also stone cills and sashes and a small quantity of lumber. These included to purchase are invited to view the property, and can obtain further information on application to Matthew Johnston, living in the house, or to James Moser, New Church street, who will give the purchaser an indisputable title in fee simple.

Martha Duncan, Milliner,

No. 203, Market street, near Congress Hall Baltimore.

RETURNS thanks to her customers for the generous patronage which they have afforded her in the line of her profession, and respectfully informs them and the public in general, that she has now on hand and intends constantly to keep, a general assortment of Leghorn and other bonnets, which she offers for sale on reasonable terms.

Country merchants and others supplied as above, at the shortest notice and most reduced prices.

A NEW ESTABLISHMENT. TO ADMIRERS Of Good Water.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public that he contemplates in a short time to supply the citizens of Baltimore with water taken from one of the best sources in the city or neighborhood, those who are situated at a distance from good water, and who pay attention to their comfort and health, will, in order to avoid disappointment, be so good as to call immediately at one or other of the following places with their address, and the daily quantity of water they may choose to take. From the moderation of his terms, being little more in most cases than half a cent, and in no case exceeding one cent per gallon—the flatters himself that the subscription list will in a few days justify the commencement of his operations. Orders will be thankfully received by Frederick Graham, Light-street.
Thomas Cloudsley, Public Alley.
Abner Neale, Water-street.
Thomas Hanna, South-street.
William King, Smith's wharf.

Land for sale.
A PART of that very valuable tract of LAND, formerly the property and residence of John Mercer Porter, deceased—situated in Baltimore county, in Backriver neck, and about 14 miles from the city—containing 240 acres of strong fertile land, a great part of which is in a high state of cultivation; 14 acres in excellent timothy meadow, and about 90 acres more may be added at a very small expense.—The improvements are of wood, lately created, and such as would suit for a farm house.—The part in wood, which is at least equal to the support of the place, abounds in lofty white oaks, interspersed with hickory. This property will be sold part for cash, and part for credit, or bartered for approved property in the city of Baltimore. It is presumed a purchaser will view the premises, therefore it is unnecessary to give any further description of them. Peregrine Porter, adjacent to the premises, will show them, and treat for the sale thereof—or, if more convenient to purchasers, apply to
Wm. C. GOULDSMITH

Columbia Mills
FOR SALE BY AUCTION.
THESE MILLS, with the LANDS thereto attached, about 27 acres, will be offered for sale by the subscriber, at their Auction-room in Baltimore, on MONDAY the 8th of April next, at 11 past 11 o'clock. This property is situated on the waters of Deer Creek, in Harford county, Maryland; 13 miles from Staffed the residence of John Stump, esq. and 5 miles from Rockrun Landing, at the head of tide water of Susquehanna. The improvements are a decent dwelling house, a miller's house, and other out houses, an apple orchard, and a variety of peach and other fruit trees.
The mill is a substantial stone building, about 66 feet by 40; has two pairs of excellent French Burr stones, and one pair of Cologne; the stream is capable of turning two wheels at the driest season, and the mill every way calculated for carrying on an extensive business, but now out of repair. Jeremiah Rogers, on the premises, can give further information, if required.
The nearness of this situation to the tide water on Susquehanna, promises important advantages in the purchase of grain descending that river, as well as in the easy carriage of flour, by water, to Baltimore. One third of the purchase money will be required in hand, a reasonable credit may be had for the residue, on being satisfactorily secured.
At the same time and place will be sold,
A tract of LAND, of about 130 acres, on which is an apple orchard and some small improvements, in a healthy situation, nearly adjoining the residence of Colonel Carvel Hall in Harford county, now in the tenure of William Arnold, and the whole of the above property belongs to the estate of Alexander W. Davey, deceased.

Peter Michel & Peter Dulany,
Cook and Steward of the late Soup House,
PROPOSE to continue the institution throughout the summer, so as to be enabled to deliver Soup to the industrious Poor and others at a moderate price. They also propose to add to the establishment, a Cook-shop and eating room, in which is to be served up, Turtle Soup, &c. In the fall or the next winter, the Soup house is to be again in the hands of this public, or under such regulations and government as the public may direct. They now require a small advance of money from their friends, which they promise to repay in Soup Tickets, Turtle soup, &c.
Turtle and other Soups will be ready for delivering THIS DAY, at 11 o'clock, at No. 5, South Gay-street.
WE, the late committee of general superintendance of the Soup house, approve of the plan proposed by Peter Michel & Peter Dulany, and take the liberty to recommend them to the public patronage.
