Columbian Inn—continued.

ISAAC CAUSTEN
Respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known house, the Columbian Inn, one door above the corner of Howard in Baltimore-street.
To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property, nothing need be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers, &c.
To this extensive establishment, I. Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a generous public, and begs leave to assure them every thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation.

Union Mill for Sale by Auction.

On SATURDAY,
The 13th of April, at 4 o'clock, P. M. on the premises, we shall offer for sale,
THE above Valuable MILL, with about 40 acres of Land attached to it. The mill is in complete order, and is capable of manufacturing upwards of 25,000 bushels of grain annually. It has two pair bur stones, three sets of cloths, and all Evans's late improvements. It is situated within 1 1/2 miles of Baltimore, and on the borders of Jones's falls. The arable land is very fertile and healthy, and commands a beautiful prospect; the other part is well timbered, and contains a number of valuable and inexhaustible stone quarries. For two-thirds of the purchase money a long credit will be given.
VAN WYCK & DORSEY, And's.
April 1.

Sale by Auction.
ON MONDAY,
The 15th of April at 10 o'clock, on the premises, will be sold, on 60 days credit,

A NEW ESTABLISHMENT.
TO ADMIRERS
Of Good Water.
THE subscriber respectfully informs the public, that he contemplates in a short time to supply the citizens of Baltimore with water taken from one of the best sources in the city or neighborhood, those who are situated at a distance from good water, and who pay attention to their comfort and health, will, in order to avoid disappointment, be so good as to call immediately at one or other of the following places with their address, and the daily quantity of water they may choose to take.
From the moderation of his terms, being little more in most cases than half a cent, and in no case exceeding one cent per gallon—he flatters himself that the subscription list will in a few days justify the commencement of his operations. Orders will be thankfully received by Frederick Graham, Light-street.
Thomas Cloudsley, Public Alley.
Abner Neale, Water-street.
Thomas Hanna, South-street.
William King, Smith's wharf.
Pickhop & Hops, M'Elerry's do.
