SCRAP.

In a late Providence paper, a blacksmith advertises a vice which has been stolen from him. He must be a vicious thief that can steal vices.

The following is a description of a CAMELON, new exhibiting in New York, which arrived there, from Senegal, in the schooner Hope:—

This animal is a production of Africa, is 11 inches in length, his head near 2 inches; from thence to the beginning of the tail four and an half; the tail is five inches long, and the feet two and an half, the thickness of the body is different at different times, as it can blow itself up and contract itself at pleasure. This swelling and contraction is not only of the back and belly, but of the legs and tail. Its subsistence is air; but sometimes it is known to feed upon flies, one of which it is half an hour in swallowing. It possesses the power of changing to various colours, such as black, white, yellow, red, &c.

Married last Sunday evening, by the Rev. Mr. Hargrove, Mr. Daniel Smothers, to Miss Mariah McClain.

Married last evening, by the Rev. Dr. Rattoone, Mr. JOHN WISNOR, to Miss MARGARET CONNELLY, both of this city.

DIED, at Fell's Point, on the evening of Friday the 12th instant, Master JOHN YOUNG, in the sixteenth year of his age—A youth "of promise"; whose filial obedience, conciliating manners, and correct deportment, were not less remarkable, than the extraordinary serenity of temper, which he uniformly maintained, under the pressure of the most poignant affliction. In his character were concentrated, "whatsoever things are pure, lovely, and of good report."

"Nor are his powers to perish IMMATURE; But after feeble effort here, beneath A brighter sun, and in a nobler soil, Transplanted from this sublunary bed, Shall flourish fair, and put forth all their bloom."

Brig Sally, Edwards, hence at Havana in 9 1/2 days.

Yesterday arrived ship Charlotte, captain Morrison, from Bay of Honduras. He left the Belleisle the 12th March, and the same day spoke the ship Horatio, of and from New York for the Belleisle; the wind being from N. W. she was obliged to anchor and lay at Key Babel when captain M. spoke her. Prevous to captain M's sailing, his Britannic Majesty's armed brig Penguin sent his tender down the Gulf of Honduras, who cut out a Spanish ship, sloop and wh'r, and brought them round to the Belleisle, where they are detained. On the 25th, was brought too by a British 74 under Spanish colours, but after examination suffered to pass.

On the 4th of April, in lat. 30, long. 76, capt. M. was brought too by an Imperial French armed schooner who took capt. M. on board, threatened to punish him for not heaving too at first sight of him, and after examination of his papers, suffered him to pass. The French Lieutenant, who was left in charge of the Charlotte, in capt. M's absence, said she was a National schooner, that she was only 28 days from France, and was going with dispatches to St. Domingo, and from thence, to cruise in the Gulph. That previous to his sailing, a French and Spanish fleet of 34 sail of ships of war, and a number of gun boats had made a descent on Gibraltar, and carried it. That a French fleet was to sail for the West Indies, to capture Antigua, St. Kitts and Jamaica. And the Lieutenant further mentions the loss of a British 74, on the Maranilla Reef.

The brig Assistance, from Guadeloupe, came into Delaware Bay, with captain Morrison, but in the N. W. gale of Thursday last, she parted her cables, and drove to sea.
