Presbyterian Church Lottery.

Authorized by the General Assembly of Maryland, and Corporation of the City of Baltimore.

SCHEME table with columns for Prize of, amount, and number of tickets.

3740 42,500
7250 Blanks. Sum raised 12,500
11060 tickets at 5 dollars. Dollars 55,000

The above Lottery is intended to raise a sum of money, in addition to the liberal subscription heretofore obtained, for building the second Presbyterian Church in this city.

The laudable purpose to which this money is to be applied, together with the advantages in a pecuniary view, which must appear obvious to all venturers, cannot fail to produce a ready sale of the tickets.

The drawing will commence on the first Monday in May. All Prizes in this Lottery will be paid, without deduction, in sixty days after the drawing is completed. Prizes not demanded within twelve months after the drawing is finished, will be considered as generously relinquished for the benefit of the church.

Tickets, at five dollars each, to be had of the Managers.

THOMAS McELDERRY, JAMES HAYS, JAMES ARMISTONG, JAMES SLOAN, JOHN McKIM, junr, THOMAS DICKSON, KENNEDY LONG, HENRY PATSON, JOHN HOLLINS, Dr. JOHN C. WHITE, JAMES HUTTON.

Debating Society,

Meeting according to appointment, at Alexander Davidson's large hall, the sign of the Horse, No. 50, Market street, on Monday evening the 2d inst. when the following question was, in the presence of a large assemblage of members of the society, ably discussed...

1st. Is it reasonable to believe that the variety of colors in the human race originated from one family? Dissolved in the affirmative.

2d. Has civil society become more productive of happiness than the natural state?

3d. Would it be good policy in the American government to extend the same right Civil, Religious, and political, to deists as to christians?

4th. Which is best calculated to reform the morals of mankind, the pulpit or the press?

5th. Debate to commence precisely at 7 o'clock, when gentlemen who wish to promote the institution, are, by the ancient members, particularly requested to be punctual in their attendance, whereby those who have an inclination to take a part in the debate, will have the advantage of hearing the commencement.

Tickets of admission 12 1/2 cents, to be had at the bar. All ladies who have an inclination to hear the debates will have free admission, and that, without the trouble of calling for tickets, and they are by the society particularly invited to honor them with their presence.

COPY-RIGHT SECURED.]

The COMPLETE HISTORY of the Civil War in Ireland,

By the Rev. JAMES GORDON,

WILL be published in a few days, by S. Butler, and Probin & Frazer; and the delivery of said work, to subscribers in the city of Baltimore, will commence next week.

It will form two handsome volumes; price to subscribers 175 cents, to non-subscribers the price will be 2 dollars.—Of 1500 copies printed, more than 1250 are now subscribed for.

The Publishers inform that subscribers will not be received after the present week.

ALTHOUGH the professed object of the Rev. J. Gordon, in writing his history, was to give, an impartial and unbiased account of the unsuccessful attempt of the Irish to emancipate themselves from their degrading thralldom, yet the imperious calls of self security rendered the full attainment of this desirable object impossible.

Living under a despotic government, exasperated by the immense loss of blood and treasure expended in the redemption of these brave but unfortunate sons of freedom, he very well knew, that any one attempting to tell the whole truth, would be frowned into silence, and the impudent and luckless author be doomed to add one more to the long list of Irish martyrs.

He, therefore, prescribed to himself certain bounds, beyond which he has not dared to pass;—he has written as impartially as circumstances would permit, but very differently from what he might have done had he penned it in our own free and happy country.

To remedy this defect, and to supply all the deficient narrative of Gordon, has been the unwearied care of the Publishers, and they are happy to assure the public, that their exertions, they flatter themselves, have been crowned with success.

The sources from which they have derived their additional and corroborative information, are various. They have made copious extracts from Messrs. Hay, Plowden, and C. W. P. H. histories on the subject, and from several professed pamphlets, the printing and sale of which in Ireland, if discovered, might have been considered treasonable, as they contain many important narrative facts, which the government wish to conceal or misrepresent.

As it may be presumed that some readers may not be fully acquainted with the situation of Ireland, we have, to illustrate the work, prefixed a short Geographical, Topographical and Historical description thereof.

With these Additions, Corrections and Alterations, the Publishers, will present to their free and enlightened countrymen, GORDON'S HISTORY OF THE IRISH REVOLUTION, as the most impartial, faithful and interesting history on that subject, now extant. In this favoured country only, could such an one be printed; as here, the Liberty of the Press, unfettered by the arbitrary hand of power, diffuses the rays of truth and impartial information, throughout our happy land.

All persons having claims against said estate, are hereby notified to exhibit the same duly authenticated to the subscriber, on or before the 10th day of Oct. next; they may otherwise by law be excluded from any benefit of said estate;—and those indebted to said estate, are requested to make payment as above.

ADNER NEALE. April 11.

To be Let.

THE STORE and CHILDR, corner of Baltimore and Liberty streets, or the Milling Store and Cellar, if preferred. Immediate possession, on advantageous terms, may be had, by applying to SMITH & STERN, April 4.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

STOLEN on Monday morning last, between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock, from the stable of the subscribers, at Woodbury Mills, on Jones's Falls, about four miles from Baltimore, a Wagon HORSE. He is a grey Gelding, about 4 years old, in high order, about 15 or 15 1/2 hands high. He is a well turned horse, but not a good hack; he is rough, has a tolerable long switch tail, and his head more white than his body. The villain who stole him was seen this morning about daylight, near Beams's tavern, on the Reister's town turnpike road, in company with a black man on a black horse; he then had the blind bridle on the horse, about half worn, which he took from the stable with the horse, and was riding on a blanket in the place of a saddle. We will give Twenty Dollars for the horse, if delivered to us in Baltimore; or Fifty Dollars for thief and horse, upon conviction.

There is no doubt but the horse is stolen by one of the gang of jockeys who are lurking about the city, and it would be well for those who have horses, to keep a vigilant look-out for these fellows, and endeavor if possible to bring them to justice, as a number of horses have lately been stolen in or near the city.

W. MORRIS & W. TYSON, Ellicott's wharf, Baltimore. April 25

Thirty Dollars Reward.

ABSCONDED from the subscriber, on Monday, the 8th instant, a Mule to man named WILL. He is about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high; his features are coarse; has a large flat nose, thick and prominent lips, and has some freckles on his forehead; is marked with the small pox, particularly on his nose; his hair has been lately cut; his legs and thighs are larger than usual for the size of his body and shoulders. He carries with him a variety of clothing. He is a good writer and understands driving a carriage. He was met on the road on Wednesday, the 10th instant, about 8 miles from Baltimore, at which place there is a woman, the property of Mr. John Gill, whom he has claimed as a wife and who, no doubt, will endeavor to recover him—I will give the above reward if he is secured in any jail, so that I get him again; and if delivered here, I will pay all reasonable charges.

HENRY ROSE, Alexandria, April 15.

City Hotel.

THE subscribers have taken that spacious and commodious house in Water-street, lately occupied as the United States Custom House, which they propose to sit up in a neat and elegant style;—also the large & well furnished house, sign of Liberty and Commerce, adjoining, where they propose to keep a CITY Tavern and HOTEL, on an extensive and profitable plan;—they are, at present, provided with the best liquors, &c. and very accommodation for citizens and travelers; and promise those who may honor the business by their custom, that every exertion shall be made to give complete satisfaction. All the city newspapers are taken in at their house, and they propose to take those of the adjoining seaports.

A few gaudy orders can be accommodated. Excellent stabling and saddle horses, carriages, and horse and gigs to hire. A Billiard table has been erected for the accommodation and amusement of their friends.
