Fifty Dollars Reward.
STOLEN on Monday morning last, between the hours of 9 and 4 o'clock from the stable of the subscribers, at Wood Mill, on Jones's Falls, about five miles from Baltimore, a Waggon HORSE. He is a grey Gelding, about 2 years old, in high order, about 15 or 15 1/2 hands high. He is a well turned horse but not a good hack; trots round, has a tolerable long switch tail, and his head more white than his body.
The villain who stole him was seen this morning about daylight, near Bean's tavern, on the River's town turnpike road in company with a black man on a black horse; he then had the blind bridle in his hand, about half worn, which he took from the stable with the horse, and was riding on a blanket in the place of a saddle, and was wearing a white blanket in the place of a saddle. He will give Twenty Dollars for the horse, if delivered to us in Baltimore, or Fifty Dollars for him and horse upon conviction.
There is no doubt but the horse is stolen by one of the gang of thieves who are lurking about the city, and it would be well for those who have horses, to keep a vigilant look-out for these fell wags, and endeavor if possible to bring them to justice, as a number of horses have lately been stolen in or near the city.
W. MORRIS & W. TYSON, Ellicott's wharf, Baltimore.
April 25

Thirty Dollars Reward.
ARSCONDED from the subscriber, on Monday, the 8th inst., a Mule to man named WILL. He is about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, is a fine creature; has a large flat nose, thick and prominent lips, and some irregularity on his forehead; is marked with the small black particularly on his nose; his hair has been lately cut; his legs and thighs are larger than usual for the size of his body and shoulders.
He carries with him a variety of clothing. He is a good water and under-tail driving carriage.
He was met on the road on Wednesday, the 10th inst., about 8 miles from Baltimore; at which place there is a woman, the property of Mr. John Gill, whom he has claimed as a wife, and who, I doubt, will endeavor to secure him—I will give the above reward if he is accused in any jail so that I get him again; and if delivered here, I will pay all reasonable charges.
HENRY ROSE
Alexandria, April 15.

100 Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber on the 23d of February last a Negro lad named JIM, 19 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, square built, black brown complexion, a small scar under one of his eyes and had one on each cheek, the white of his eyes are mixed with a yellowish red, and a good countenance; he has a hurt in one of his legs which is not perceivable unless he walks quick. His dress when he went away was a blue outside jacket lined with green, longer than common—a blue inside ditto half worn, a grey fawnhaired pair of breeches, a coarse pair of white yarn stockings and two pair of shoes. He is an artful villain and will endeavor (through the means of his father who lives on Fell's Point) to pass for a free man and no doubt will enter on board some vessel as such.
This is the 5th time he has run off—He ran away the 3d of January 1801, and was caught in Little York jail. If he is taken up in Maryland I will pay fifty dollars and reasonable expenses if brought and delivered to me—if in any other state the above reward, and all reasonable expenses on his being delivered to Wm. STENSON.
N. B. All masters of vessels are warned not to take him away.

THE COMPLETE HISTORY of the Civil War in Ireland,
By the Rev. JAMES GORDON.
WILL be published in a few days, by S. Butter, and Peckin & Frailey; and the delivery of said work, to subscribers in the city of Baltimore, will commence next week.
It will form two handsome volumes; price to subscribers 175 cents, to non-subscribers the price will be 2 dollars.—Of 1500 copies printed, more than 1250 are now subscribed for.
The Publishers inform that subscribers will not be received after the present week.

ALTHOUGH the professed object of the Rev.
J. Gordon, in writing his history, was to give an impartial and unbiased account of the unsuccessful attempt of the Irish to emancipate themselves from their degrading thralldom, yet the impetuous calls of self security rendered the fulfillment of this desirable object impossible. Living under a despotic government, exasperated by the immense loss of blood and treasure expended in the rebellion of these brave but unfortunate sons of freedom, he very well knew, that any attempt to tell the whole truth, would be regarded as silence, and the imprudent author is doomed to add one more name to the long list of Irish martyrs. He, therefore, preferred to himself certain bounds, beyond which he has not dared to pass;—he has written impartially as circumstances would permit, but very far from what he might have done had he poured it in our own free and happy country.
To some, this defect, and to supply all the deficient narrative of Gordon, has been the unwarranted care of the Publishers, and they are happily to assure the public, that their exertions, they flatter themselves, have been crowned with success.
The sources from which they have derived their additional and corrective information are various. They have made copious extracts from Messrs. Hay, Mowden, and Cooper's histories on the subject and from several private communications, the printing and sale of which in Ireland, if it were, might have been considered a crime, as they contain many important particulars, which the government was so desirous to suppress.
As it may be presumed that some readers may not be fully acquainted with the situation of Ireland, we have, to illustrate the work, prefixed a short Geographical, Topographical and Historical description thereof.
With these additions, Corrections and Alterations, the Publishers will present to their free and enlightened countrymen, GORDON'S HIS-TORY OF THE IRISH REVOLUTION, as the most important, faithful and interesting history on that subject now extant. In this improved country only could such an one be printed; as here the Liberty of the Press, unfettered by the arbitrary laws of power, diffuses the rays of truth and impartial information, throughout our happy land.

Notice is hereby given, THAT a Conviction of the Medical and Surgical Faculty of Maryland will commence at Baltimore on the first Monday in June.
The practitioners of medicine and surgery, in the state of Maryland, are respectfully invited to attend. Those who have not been elected members of the faculty, will please to signify their wishes to the secretaries, or some other member, that they may be admitted at the opening of the convention, and take their seats immediately.
Gentlemen who are candidates for permission to practice physic and surgery, in the state of Maryland, will please to attend at the session of the convention.
By an unanimous resolution at the last meeting of the faculty, the orator appointed in 1802 to have delivered an oration in 1805, was declined to deliver the same in 1805, and disposition having been deemed a sufficient apology for the non performance of his duty at that time. The orator appointed for 1805, will, nevertheless, be expected to deliver his oration at the convention in June.
The Censors of the counties, towns, and of the cities of Baltimore and Annapolis, are earnestly requested to report to the convention (through the secretaries) the names, places of residence, and dates of the commencement of practice of all the practitioners within their respective jurisdictions. The censors will feel the necessity of such a measure, when they reflect that there are many unlicensed practitioners infringing the law, and that without the regular execution of their duty, it must become a letter.
NATH POTTELL, Sec'y
Med and Chirug, Fac. Maryland
The editors of the Washington Federalist, the National Intelligencer, the Frederick town Herald, and of the Star at Annapolis, will confer a particular favor on the faculty of physic, as well as serve the interests of science and humanity, by giving the above a place in their papers two or three times previous to the first Monday in June.

may be always required at any of the fixed and Thames streets, Fell's Point. It is well known to be a good stand for any kind of bu-two rooms, two of which may answer for as-semblies, or large parties; and has a pump of
