valuable Prizes it contains, and there being considered as relinquished for the benefit of the negro man named JACOB, 35 years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches high; of a light complexion, stout and well built. The only distinguish-able marks which I can now recollect, are the wearing upon his countenance a general, but simple smile. Had on when he went away, a pair of cloth overalls, of a drab colour, a round jacket of the same, a pair of white yarn stockings, and a felt hat; all of which were nearly new. The night of his departure, he was seen crossing the Patuxent, at the Governor's bridge, on his way, as he said, to see his father, then Major Drogden's, in Anne Arundel; since then, I have heard nothing of him. He is unskilful attached to spirituous liquor. Whoever shall apprehend the said negro and secure him, so that I may get him again, shall receive the above reward.
