For Sale by Auction.

SEVEN Mills, with 330 acres of land and the improvements thereon belonging, 8 miles from Baltimore, and about half a mile from the road leading to the city of Washington. The mills are capable of manufacturing 50,000 bushels of wheat yearly, to the best advantage, having water carriage to the spot, which renders the property very valuable and has produced from 4 to 5000 dollars a year, clear of all expenses. The buildings are good, and the situation beautiful, and the farm productive, being well adapted to the use of planter of Paris, and from the present appearance a good crop in the ground. There are about 100 acres of cleared land, the remainder is well covered with thriving young timber, which is a great acquisition to the property, so near water carriage. The property will be exposed at public sale on the premises, on third day, the 8th of the present month (if fair, if not the next fair day); the sale to commence at ten o'clock. Terms of sale, one fourth of the purchase money in cash, one fourth in three, six and nine months—the remaining half in five equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, and on the last payment being made, an inalienable title will be given. Immediately after will be sold, all the moveable property belonging to said mills, on a liberal credit, consisting of two sloops suitable for the business of carrying wheat and flour to and from said mills, one will carry 650 and the other 850 bushels. Also, flour barrels and staves, horses, cattle, hogs, farming utensils, household and kitchen furniture, with a number of other articles.

City Hotel.

The subscribers have taken that spacious and commodious house in Water-street, lately occupied as the United States Custom House which they propose to sit up in a neat and elegant style; also the large & well finished house, sign of Liberty and Commerce, adjoining, where they propose to keep a CITY TAVERN AND HOTEL, on an extensive and respectable plan—they are, at present, provided with the best liquors, &c. and every accommodation for citizens and travellers; and promise those who may honor their house by their custom, that every exertion shall be made to give complete satisfaction.
All the city newspapers are taken in at their house, and they propose soon to take those of the adjoining resorts.
A few genteel boarders can be accommodated.
Excellent stabling, and saddle horses, carriage, and horses and gigs to hire.
A Billiard table has been erected for the accommodation and amusement of their friends.

FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL.

Ecole Francaise.
NOTICE is hereby given, That I, the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French and English Languages, intend to open the FRENCH SCHOOL, in my commodious dwelling, on the 26th instant; and if 43 years experience, in giving tuition in this line, in different parts of the United States, with success, are not sufficient to entitle me to a share of encouragement, I beg those promising youths, who have a desire to become scholars, to apply to friend Philip Thomas, at the sign of the golden-key, Baltimore-street, where they can be acquainted with my short, yet grammatical manner of Teaching.
As I can devote some leisure hours in the day time, to the instruction of a few scholars, I should be happy to make an engagement.

TO LET,

THAT Extensive & commodious STAND, 10, north Howard-street, fronting west on said street, and south on a 20 feet paved alley, now fitted up for a tavern. The front building contains, on the first floor, 4 large rooms, and one small one that will suit for a bar room, a wide passage fronting on Howard-street; 8 rooms on the second floor; and a cellar; (exclusive of the present store and cellar under it, reserved by the proprietor.) The new back building contains four rooms and a cellar, all neatly finished; there are also a convenient kitchen and washing room; a complete new brick stable, with stalls for about 30 horses, and a paved yard large enough to admit carriages, &c.
For situation, air, water, and many other advantages, this stand is equal to any in the city, either for a tavern, or a store and dwelling for a large family. The principal trade, daily approaching the western limits of Baltimore, will be a particular benefit to the above premises.
To an approved tenant, well qualified for keeping a regular house of entertainment, the terms will be made easy, and immediate possession given. Application to be made to Land for sale.

A PART of that very valuable tract of LAND, formerly the property and residence of John Mercer Powers, deceased—situated in Baltimore county, in Back river neck, and about 14 miles from the city—containing several acres of strong fertile land, a great part of which is in a high state of cultivation; 14 acres is a fine timothy meadow, and about 22 acres more may be added at a very small expense.
The improvements are of wood, lately erected, and such as would suit for farm houses.—The part in wood, which is at least equal to the support of the place, abounds in lofty white oaks, interspersed with hickory. This property will be sold part for cash, and part for credit, or bar-tered for approved property in the city of Baltimore. It is presumed a purchaser will view the premises, therefore it is unnecessary to give a further description of them. Peregrine Plover adjacent to the premises, will show them, and treat for the sale thereof—or, if more convenient to purchasers, apply to

ISAAC CAUSTEN

Respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known house, the Columbian Inn, one door above the corner of Howard in Baltimore-street.
To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property, nothing need be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers, &c.
To this extensive establishment, I. Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a generous public, and begs leave to assure them every thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation.
