Cross-Keys—Gay-street.
THE Subscriber respectfully lets the public know, that he has taken the large, commodious, and very extensive premises, the Cross-Keys Inn, for many years occupied by Mr. Enoch Churchman, Gay-street; which he has fitted up and furnished in such a manner as to please the eye, as well as the appetite.
Supplied with the best liquors; excellent larder; attentive and obedient servants; very extensive stables, and every other desirable accommodation, both for citizens and travellers—he hopes that those enticing conveniences, united with his own exertions to please, while he entertains, will ensure to his house a share of that custom, which he is determined, at least, to deserve: for "he who lives to please, must please to live."
ALEX. MARTIN.
N. B. Four respectable persons can be genteelly accommodated with Boarding by the year.

ADVERTISEMENT.
WAS committed to the jail of Cecil county, State of Maryland, on the first day of June last, a Negro man by the name of GEORGE, but says his name is BEN, he is about 23 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, slim made, and very dark skin. He had on when committed, a pair of green castimer pantaloons, an old check shirt, and an old hat, he has several other articles of wearing apparel. He was sold by a Mr. Hynson, near Rock Hall, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, and says he was then about 150 miles on his journey towards the southward before he effected his escape. His owner is hereby requested to come and prove his property, pay the cost arising on the said negro, if not he will be sold at the Court House in Elkton, on Wednesday the 14th day of August next, precisely at 2 o'clock, for his prison fees and other incidental cost.
SAMUEL COUDON,
Sheriff of Cecil county, Maryland.
Elkton, July 22 [26] do1st

Accountant's Office.
THE PUBLIC are respectfully informed, that an office is now opened at No. 55, Water-street two doors from South Gay-street; where merchants and tradesmen may depend on having their Books posted and balanced with accuracy, neatness and dispatch—either by the job or year.
It is needless to enumerate all the advantages arising from such an institution, in so populous and commercial a city as Baltimore—(many are self evident)—suffice it to observe, that merchants or tradesmen, who do or do not keep regular accounts, may derive great benefit therefrom—the former, by having their books posted and balanced at a small expense—the latter by having their accounts regularly kept, may enjoy the satisfaction of knowing how their affairs stand—a satisfaction truly to be desired by every one engaged in business; for, it is a melancholy truth, that many an honest and industrious tradesman, hath been reduced by his neglect, carelessness or incapacity to keep his accounts correct.
Disputed or unsettled accounts, arranged & finally adjusted.
Charter parties, agreements, bonds, powers of attorney, &c. &c. made out; writings of every description neatly, accurately and expeditiously copied.
Those gentlemen, who may please to encourage this institution by their support, are assured that every attention will be paid to their interest, and inviolable secrecy maintained.

Copper Fastened Pilot-Beat.
The Subscriber, under a deep sense of the obligations he is under to the merchants of this city for the encouragement he has hitherto met with in his line of business, wishes to inform them that for their better accommodation, he has gone to the expense of composition, floor hook and butt bolts, and spikes to the bends, and has taken every pains to make her complete. This boat is 57 feet in length; 20 feet 6 inches in breadth, and 8 feet 3 inches in depth, and is covered about 10 tons carpenters' measure. She will be launched and brought to market in 10 or 12 days, with her standing rigging, joiners work, &c. Any gentleman inclining to purchase, may see her on the stocks, by going over in 3 or 4 days. It is reasonable to suppose from the dimensions of this vessel, and more especially from the model, that she will be among the fastest, if not the fastest, sailer belonging to the port of Baltimore.
