A TRACT OF LAND in Baltimore county, containing about six hundred acres; 4 hundred of which are supposed to be in wood. On this tract there is a handsome piece of meadow, and a young thriving apple orchard. This land is about 24 miles from the city of Baltimore, and not far from Colonel O'Donnell's country residence, purchased of Mr. William Buchanan.
A 130.

A TRACT OF LAND containing about 300 acres, about 14 miles from the city of Baltimore, west of Randall's town. On this last mentioned tract there is a stone dwelling HOUSE, just finished, with convenient cellars, two rooms and a passage on the first floor three rooms and a passage on the second floor, and a garret; a new stone stable, coal house and coach house; an overseer's house with two rooms, lately repaired at the expense of two hundred dollars; kitchen and other out houses, an excellent apple orchard, with other good fruit trees, and good garden.
On both places there is water, not exceeded in the county; and good clover lands. No place can exceed them in respect of health. There is a proportionate part of woodland on the last place.
I will permit the purchasers to seed the ensuing fall, or I would seed for them. The dwelling house on the last mentioned farm, may be immediately taken possession of by the purchaser. Presuming that no person will purchase without viewing the premises, I do not go into detail.
Both of the above places are convenient to mills; there is a mill not more than a quarter of a mile from the last mentioned place; a good neighbourhood, and the Episcopal and Presbyterian churches within five miles. An indisputable title will be given on the payment of the purchase money.

FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL.
Ecole Francaise.
NOTICE is hereby given, That I, the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French and English Languages, intend to open the French School, in my former dwelling, on the 20th of August, and if 45 years experience, in giving tuition in this line, in different parts of the United States, with success, are not sufficient to entitle me to a share of encouragement, I beg those promising youths, who have a desire to become scholars, to apply to friend Philip Thomas, at the sign of the golden key, Baltimore-street, where they can be acquainted with my short, yet grammatical, method of Teaching.
AS I can devote some leisure hours in the day time, to the instruction of a few scholars, I should be happy to make an engagement.

VENERIAL COMPLAINTS.
A Dr. WARRNER's remedy has been very extensively used in public and private, and every experienced physician knows the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vendible or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most obstinate cases with ease and dispatch, after the failure of some of the best physicians both in Europe and America. Cases of the venereal pox, and debility thereon, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.
As there are persons from various causes who are unable to apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a consideration of their complaint.
Dr. W. WARRNER is a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may know their medicine prepared that a safe, skilful and successful cure may be effected, without the strict restriction in diet or diet.
N. B. Dr. Warrner has removed from Cum Maryland Row to Conway street, next door to the corner of Hanover street, opposite the Rev. Mr. Warrner's, near the Dutch church.

RAN AWAY
FROM the subscriber living in Alexandria, Virginia, on the 7th of July, 1805, a negro man named LIGE; stout made; about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high; low legged; black bushy hair; green sunken eyes; very much scarred with the small pox; has a scar on his right cheek bone; had countenance; fond of bad company and strong drink. He has always been used to crafting in the Chesapeake bay, & thereby accumulated much company of his own colour and description. When spoken to he is apt to stammer; much given to lying, and highly to stealing. He was seen from the 12th to the 18th July in various parts of Baltimore with negroes, last at Fell's-Point, looking for a berth, probably on board a craft, as he was never at sea. I will give 50 dollars if taken and put in any jail, and information given me in Alexandria, or Mr. Wm. Ball of Baltimore; if brought home all expenses paid to the amount of 25 dollars, not exceeding.

He is very stout shouldered, marked much by the small pox, about 5 feet 10 inches high, light hair and eyes, with a very fair complexion. He calls himself a farmer, but is quite ignorant of that occupation, and was dressed in long blue broad cloth coat, striped shirt and trousers, and half boots, the other clothes are not recollected. 15 Hundred Dollars Reward.
HIGH-WAY ROBBERY
YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peto, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.
The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and thirty dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were
1 post note of the Bank of Virginia, for $500 dols.
1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500
1 do. of the same for 300
1 do. of the same for 300
1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No. 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington, for $100, and by W. B. endorsed to Bank, dated 14th July, 1805, for 119 dollars, 63 cents.
A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higginbotham, cashier, in favor of Greenham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Smedert, and C. Smith, teller.
There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 166 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.
As the ATTACK was ROBBERY, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peto instantly of his senses, it is to be hoped he will recover, the description of which may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature, of a dark complexion, and had a general appearance of a dark complexion, and a black coat, marked with a white stripe, and a black hat. He was on foot at the time, but may have had some horses, or mules, and will probably charge his horse.

Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person who shall give information and bring to the attention of the Bank of Columbia, and the Bank of Alexandria, for the recovery of the whole of the money, or a proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon.
WILLIAM WHANN,
Cashier of the Bank of Columbia.

Pennsylvania House
AND
MYERS CITY TAVERN
THE subscriber respectfully acquaints his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from his old tavern stand, to the adjoining houses on the Pennsylvania Avenue, lately occupied by Mrs. Wilson as a boarding house, and Mr. Woodward's tavern, in which he is now opening a complete hotel. The stand is probably not exceeded in any in the city, either for the accommodation of travellers or boarders; being at a convenient and almost equal distance from the Capitol, the president's house, and public offices; near the theatre, Messrs. Way's printing office, and centre market; opposite the office of the National Intelligencer and adjoining Mr. Duane's bookstore.—
These houses contain twenty-six halting rooms, with fire, beds, exclusive of dining, bar, assembly and card rooms, servants apartments, &c. The celebrated ridge-spring is conveyed in pipes to the yard of this hotel, where it supplies the whole neighborhood with flowing, cool water, to which the general health of this part of the city has in a general measure been attributed. The stabling of the hotel now erected is considerable; more however will be completed before the meeting of congress.
I now beg leave to inform my friends with confidence, that my prices shall be as heretofore, corresponding with Pennsylvania tavern rates; and in proportion as my elbow-room has increased, my disposition to please shall be enlarged; I therefore respectfully hope the continuance of a share of the public patronage.

Twenty-five Dollars Reward
RAN AWAY from me, 28th July, JAMES MORGAN a handsome well built, portly, black lad. He is not quite of a jet black; is about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, and aged about 20 years. He has a pleasant and sensible smile, a fine set of teeth and a large scar on his left temple. He rocks a little in his walk. He is respectful and complaisant. James is an excellent house-water, and a pretty good cook; his attention has latterly been devoted to the work of a farm. He can read and write; he is, indeed, fond of reading, and ambitious to improve his mind.
He was seen in Baltimore 2d August, inst. His mother (whose letters have reached him) lives in Easton, on Eastern shore;—he will probably make thither, though he may perhaps take a circuitous route.
James is bound by indenture till 28 years of age, under the laws of Pennsylvania.
The above reward will be given if he be confined in the jail of Baltimore, so that I may get him again.

All prizes will be paid within sixty days from the completion of the drawing; and such as may not be demanded within twelve months after, will be considered as generous donations to the objects of the lottery. Bond has been given to the amount of 50,000 dollars, to the mayor and city council, for the faithful performance of its conditions.
Tickets may be had of the managers, and of such other persons as they may appoint; and prizes in the Cathedral Lottery will be received in payment.
