1000 Dollars Reward.

ON Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, was forcibly opened by thieves, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, chiefly small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villains who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vault: all they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Among other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indorsements on them entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation.—About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon.

DAVID HARRIS, Cashier.

Keen Shaving!

THE comforts of a keen razor comes so feelingly home to the mazzards of civilized mankind, that little can be necessary to illustrate the subject to any person who has ever been shaved with a blunt or rough one. The bearded world are therefore respectfully informed that Hopkins' magnetic strap and diamond paste is out of all comparison, on the best ever yet offered to the public for keeping the razor in order. Price from 37-1-2 cts. to 2 dollars, 50 cents. Paste in boxes with directions 30 cents. Sold wholesale and retail by T. Hopkins, No. 65, south Third-street, Philadelphia, and by his sole agents for Baltimore, (at the same price)

Fifty Dollars Reward.

ABSCONDED from the subscriber on the 29th of July last, a negro man named GENERAL, of a dark complexion, about 5 feet 10 inches high, well made, and has a very fine look when shaven. I cannot state any notable mark about him, except his under lip, which is always sore in summer season, & he is obliged to wear something over it (generally leaves)—I am informed he has a freepass, and calls himself WILLIAM JOHNSON, but no county seal annexed to it (as the law requires for all free passes). Any person or persons that will apprehend the said negro General, & bring him to me, or put him in jail, so I get him again, shall receive the above reward, from
ROBERT BISHAM,
Of Richmond county and state of Virginia.
N. B. I suppose he will make for Baltimore.

Harrison-street Academy.

William C. Cochran,

IMPRESSED with the warmest sentiments of gratitude for the many favours conferred on him since his commencement in the life of forming the morals and instilling into the minds of youth "the gem which never fails through life to gain respectability," informs the parents of those pupils who have been hitherto entrusted to his care—that on Monday next, the second of Sept. his Academy will be opened at the usual hours and place in Harrison-street.
August 31

No Patent Medicine!

Finn's Real Cordial Palm of Giltad. FINN, at his Baths and Laboratory, opposite the foot bridge, Jones's Falls, after many experiments, and unwearied exertions, has at length discovered, a certain and efficient cure for

Head-Aches, Female Weakness, Tremblings, Restlessness, Sciatica, Consumption, Palsey, Nervous Debility, Sterility, Agitated & uneasy Dreams, Sudden twitching of the Nerves, Peripneumony, Paralytic Strokes, Debility,

And all complaints resulting from fatigue, debility, inordinate exertions, a sedentary life, or too free an indulgence in the use of spiritous liquors, or from the habit of taking strong opiates.

Directions for using—The patient, if a male, must divest himself of his apparel, and immerse himself in a warm or cold BATH, in one of the snug convenient rooms, which Finn has erected for the purpose; after which he is to wipe himself with a clean napkin, and resume his clothing. If a lady, a long loose gown may be worn, although unnecessary.

Also may be had as above,
FINN'S ANTI SPASMODIC, OR IMPROVED SHOWER BATHS,

With proper directions for using the same.

Prices of the above medicines, (to the efficacy of which, thousands are willing to testify) fifty cents a dose, or 5 for one dollar; but a handsome allowance to those who take a quantity.

N. B. Patients attended from day light till midnight.

Of Lemonade, milk and fruit punch with other refreshments as usual.
August 31

ADVERTISEMENT.

WHEREAS my husband, OWEN CONNELLY, has forewarned the public against crediting me on his account—I hereby caution them not to credit him on mine, and assure them he never paid one cent of my contracting, but I can prove I have paid his debts, both here and in New York—And as to him denying me for his wife, I sincerely wish I never had seen him, much less been married to him, but I can prove our marriage by evidence which he cannot have the presumption to contradict, and likewise defy him to charge me with one action inconsistent with the duty of a prudent wife, yet when he went to the West Indies about nine months ago, he did not leave me one dollar, nor allow me one for support in his absence.

MARY CONNELLY.

N. B. This I only address to strangers, as to those who are acquainted with both our characters I deem it unnecessary.
August 30
