On the 2d of this month, I GAVE my indentured servant, Christian Stuhr, permission to go and see his friends in Baltimore; he was to return on the 6th, but as he has not yet made his appearance, I conclude he means to abscond. This servant is a H. Noves-sian by birth, and arrived from Amsterdam in March last. He is very round shouldered, marked much by the small pox, about 5 feet 10 inches high, light hair and eyes, with a very fair complexion. He calls himself a farmer, but is quite ignorant of that occupation, and was dressed in long blue broad cloth coat, striped shirt and trousers, and half boots, the other clothes are not recollected. Whoever will deliver the above servant to Mr. Andrew Buchanan, in Baltimore, shall receive a reward of fifteen dollars.

For ships, which are warranted not to get out of order for a number of years. Their utility has been proved by the many masters of vessels, who constantly use and prefer them in direct violation to the wishes of those whose interest guides their tongues, and for the sake of pocketing a few dollars, endeavor to frustrate the introduction of one of the greatest safeguards and improvements made in the nautical line for many years. Those facts may be corroborated by seeing them in use on board Capt.
Deagle's N. York and Capt. Mann's George-town Packet, as well as Salem, Boston and various other vessels.

Improved Method
OF TEACHING
THE FRENCH LANGUAGE,
(By the Subscriber), Displayed in a series of Vocabulary and familiar Phrases—suitable to every capacity.
SCHOOL FOR PUBLIC TUITION, 6, Water-street,
Between South and Calvert-streets, Every morning, from 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock, except on the day devoted to private teaching, at home or abroad.
THE new method, here announced, has been lately introduced, and is now successfully practised by the most eminent French teachers in these states. It is the substance of a work which contains a judicious selection of the most necessary words used in familiar discourse, faithfully translated, and exemplified by well adapted phrases; thus presenting a compact and perspicuous view, of the most essential part of the language of conversation, by which means a person of ordinary capacity may be able, in a short time, (with little study, and without the drudgery of making translations) to READ and SPEAK the French Language with correctness, elegance and fluency.
The subscriber being fully conversant in this new mode of tuition, and possessing the qualifications requisite to convey to learners an easy and graceful pronunciation, most respectfully tenders his services to the ladies and gentlemen of Baltimore and its vicinity, to teach them the French Language according to the above method, with the assurance of hope, that if honored with the confidence of persons desirous to learn, he shall be able to give them ample and prompt satisfaction.
He begs leave to inform Germans and other foreigners, that he is sufficiently familiarised with the German language to be able to teach them French or English (or both) with per-spicuity and dispatch.
J. BROWN,
A Prospectus, explanatory of the Improvement of teaching, may be had by applying at the School.

French Night School.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the FRENCH & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Christchurch-street; but as to promise to do wonders in half of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translations the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years; I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.
JOSEPH PAILLOTTEE.
N. B. Private tuition, any hour during the day, so as to accommodate the different scholars who may apply.
