Forty Dollars Reward.
STOLEN or strayed on Sunday night, the 28th ultimo, from the country seat lately belonging to Colonel Hindman, on the Hartford road, a light bay HORSE, five years old; has a white stripe down his face, and a very small white spot on his right thigh; his hind feet are also white, and are a little sore, occasioned by a cord. Whoever takes up the said horse, and returns him to the subscriber, in Baltimore, shall receive Ten Dollars reward, and if stolen, a further reward of Forty Dollars is offered for the apprehension of the thief, to be paid on conviction.
LEWIS ATTERBURY.

20 Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY from the subscriber on the 7th of July, a Negro man named LIGE. He is an able strong fellow, large bushy head, green eyes, much pitted with the small pox, very black, has a scar on his cheek, remarkable bad countenance, fond of company and strong drink. It is presumed that he is harbored by the free negroes of this town. Whoever takes up the said negro and lodges him in jail, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward and all reasonable charges paid by me.
N. B. He follows the sea-faring business.

State of Maryland, City of Baltimore,
By THORNGOOD SMITH, Mayor of the City of Baltimore.
A PROCLAMATION.
WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the commissioners of health, that they entertain a well-founded apprehension that the malignant disease with which the city of New York, is at this time unhappily afflicted, may be introduced amongst us unless the usual intercourse be interdicted.

I have therefore, in pursuance of the advice of the said commissioners of health, issued this PROCLAMATION—hereby prohibiting the entrance into the city of Baltimore, or within three miles thereof, of all persons whomsoever, as well as of all baggage or other goods, which have come from the said city of New York until they shall have been at least fifteen days therefrom excepting only the public mail and such persons or things as the commissioners of health may admit by a special license in consequence of no circumstance appearing to them whereby the health of the city is endangered. And in addition to the prohibitions contained in a Proclamation issued by me on the sixth day of September instant, interdicting the usual intercourse with the city of Philadelphia—the inhabitants of this city and the precincts thereof are hereby expressly enjoined not to entertain, receive, or admit any person or persons into their houses who may have arrived here from either the city of Philadelphia or New York, unless by, or they shall have previously obtained a special license as aforesaid.

This PROCLAMATION to remain in force until publicly revoked by me, of which all persons concerned are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly, under the penalty of Three Hundred Dollars for every offence, one half to the informer, and the other half for the use of the city.
Given under my hand and the corporate seal of the city of Baltimore (L.S.C.) more, this 9th day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and five.
THORNGOOD SMITH,
Mayor of the City of Baltimore.

Indian King.
THE subscribers having removed from the sign of Commerce and Liberty, Water-st. to that noted Inn, the Indian King, in the same street, lately occupied by Mr. Wm. Southward, beg leave to inform their friends in particular and the public in general, that they have fitted up the same, with every convenience for their accommodation; and that they have laid in a complete supply of the best liquors of the very first quality.
OYSTERS to be had during the season.
Gentle boarders will be accommodated on reasonable terms by the day, week, month or year.

A new Academy,
HIGH-STREET, OLD-TOWN.
THE subscriber, recently one of the assistants to the Parthenon Academy, most respectfully informs parents guardians and others, that in compliance with the wishes of a number of respectable friends, he purposes on the first Monday of September next, to open a SCHOOL in high street, opposite Renshaw's Tavern, Old-Town, wherein shall be taught to the best of his abilities, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, &c.—together with all the general rudiments of an English education. He will only promise to those who may please to entrust children to his care, that every attention shall be paid, both to improvement of their education, and the purity of their morals.
JOHN SKELTON,
August 27

Ten Dollars Reward,
WILL be given to any person for apprehending John Brown, who has deserted from the United States brig Hornet, after shipping on board said brig; he is about 23 or 24 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, stout made, smooth face, and speaks broad Irish; had when he went off, a black eye, an old hat, blue jacket and trousers.
Also, the above reward will be given for apprehending John Fullerton, also a deserter from said brig; he is about 35 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches high, stout made, lame in the right arm, marked with the small pox, and has got a black eye; he had on a blue jacket and trousers, a white ruffled shirt. By birth an Irish man, and speaks broad. The above deserters came in the schooner Phillip, from New York, and it is highly probable they have made for that place.
The public and captains of vessels are requested not to harbour or carry off said deserters, as the law will be strictly enforced. It is very likely they will change their names.

1000 Dollars Reward.
ON Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, was forcibly opened by thieves, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, chiefly small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villains who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vault: all they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Among other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of old defaced notes, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indentments on them entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation.—About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon.

THE Managers of this Lottery latter themselves, from the elevated and healthy situation chosen by the Commissioners appointed for erecting the Market-house, that it will be of the greatest utility and advantage, to that part of the city, and to the country in general; and beg leave to recommend it as an object worthy of their encouragement.

As the above Scheme offers every possible encouragement to adventurers, from the many valuable Prizes it contains, and there being considerably less than two Blanks to a Prize, and all Prizes payable in 60 days after the drawing of the Lottery is completed without any deduction, the Managers entertain the greatest hopes of such a speedy sale of the Tickets, as to enable them to commence drawing without loss of time.
Such Prizes as shall not be demanded within six months after the drawing is finished, will be considered as relinquished for the benefit of the Market-house.

For the satisfaction of the public, it may not be unnecessary to inform them, that the Managers have given bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of 50,000 dollars, for the due performance of the trust.

ISAAC CAUSTEN
Respectfully informs his Friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known house, the Columbian Inn, one door above the corner of Howard in Baltimore-street.
To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property, nothing needs be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers &c.
To this extensive establishment, I. Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a generous public, and begs leave to assure them, every thing in his power shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation.

French Night School.
NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but as to promise to do wonders in the half of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years; I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

Farmers Bank.
A meeting of the Directors, held at Annapolis, October 1, 1805, the President laid before them an official statement of the subscriptions taken, and the amount of monies paid in, at Easton, on Saturday the twenty-eighth of September, which, being compared with the state of the subscription books at Annapolis, as they were closed on the thirtieth of September, it appeared that the number of shares required by the charter to be subscribed, and the amount of money required to be paid in, previously to the first of October, have been considerably exceeded by the subscriptions and payments so taken and paid, exclusive of all those subscriptions and payments that may have been taken at Easton, on Monday, the thirtieth of September, and by the several directors of the respective counties of this state, agreeably to the resolution of the joint board of directors of the bank and branch bank, passed on the twenty-eighth day of August, eighteen hundred and five.
The board do therefore notify, and hereby declare the same to the stockholders, and the public, and that the books for subscription are from this day closed on the respective shares.

Notice of Fourth Payment.
THE fourth instalment on the stock held in the Farmers Bank will become due on Monday, the fourteenth day of October, inst. For the information of stockholders the following clause of the act of incorporation is subjoined.
And it be enacted, That if any stockholder shall fail to pay his or her instalments, to the amount of ten dollars on each share, at the times and in the manner before specified, such stockholder shall forfeit, to the use of the company, all monies paid antecedently to such failure or default, but no forfeiture shall take place after ten dollars on each share shall have been paid; but, as it is requisite that means shall be taken to secure the regular payment of the subsequent instalments, therefore, if any stockholder shall fail to make year payment of any instalment after ten dollars shall have been paid, such stockholder's money in bank shall remain free from interest, until he or she shall be made good, and the dividend thereon after paid to such stockholder, (as well upon the money by him regularly paid, as upon the money paid after default,) shall be calculated only from the time when said last instalment was made good.
The stockholders will be desired to observe, that a failure in any one payment, when it becomes due will be attended with a loss of interest on all former payments, although they shall be made, and that interest on no part of such stock shall be reckoned, but from the date of the completion of the last payment due.

Thirty Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber, on Monday morning the 16th of September last, a negro man named WILLIAM DAVIS, who is 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, 22 or 23 years of age; a square well set fellow, of a yellowish cast; has one of his ears bored and wears a piece of lead in it, but not recollecting which when spoken to is apt to look down. He took with him a short white over jacket, white linen shirt and makee trousers, and an old colored short jacket and tuckering shirt & trousers; he crossed Patuxent lower ferry, early on the day he ran away. I expect he is gone to Prince Georges county or to Herring Bay, where he formerly lived; his father lives with Mr. Thomas Ducket, near Little Air. The above reward, with reasonable expenses, will be paid for bringing him home, or for information, so that his master may get him again.
WILLIAM JACKSON.
N. B. All persons are forewarned not to harbor, employ or carry off said negro.

15 Hundred Dollars Reward.
YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.
The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were
1 post note of the Bank of Virginia, for 800 dollars
1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500
1 do. of the same for 500
1 do. of the same for 450
1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No. 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. B. endorsed to Blank, dated 6th July, 1805, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.
A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higginbotham, cashier, in favor of Greetham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller.
There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 100 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.
As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instantly of his senses, tho' it is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature, good countenance, and had a general appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, waistcoat, pantaloons, shoes, and a black hat. He was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably charge his clothes.
Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber; and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon.
WILLIAM WHANN,
Cashier of the Bank of Columbia.
