Sterling Plate.
Charles L. Behme,
No. 126, Market-street, Baltimore,
CONTINUES to manufacture his goods of sterling silver at nearly one third less price than that which is imported. He has now in his employ several of the best workmen, some of whom have worked in the first manufactories in London, which enables him to have his work executed in the neatest and most masterly manner. From the moderate price, the elegance of his work, and the superior quality of his silver to that generally manufactured in America, he flatters himself he will secure a preference. He has on hand an assortment of London Jewelry, and plated ware; and of his own manufacturing, coffee and tea pots, sugar dishes, soap basins and cream ewers in sets. Also, soup, table, dessert, and tea spoons & sugar tongs, all of which will match.
He carries on the Clock and Watch making as usual, and has also, an assortment of gold and silver watches, plain, capped and jeweled, all of which are warranted. Also, gentlemen and ladies' watch chains, seals and keys of the newest patterns. Clocks or watches which he may be intrusted with to repair, will be carefully executed at the shortest notice, and warranted to perform well. The above will be sold at moderate prices.
