20 Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY from the subscriber on the 7th of July, a Negro man named LIGE.—He is an able strong fellow, large bushy head, green eyes, much pitted with the small pox, very black, has a scar on his cheek, remarkable bad countenance, fond of company and strong drink. It is presumed that he is harbored by the free negroes of this town. Whoever takes up the said negro and lodges him in jail, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward and all reasonable charges paid by me.
N. B. He follows the sea-faring business.

State of Maryland, City of Baltimore,
 By THORNGOOD SMITH, Mayor of the City of Baltimore.

A PROCLAMATION.
 WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the commissioners of health, that they entertain a well-founded apprehension that the malignant disease with which the city of New York, is at this time unhappily afflicted, may be introduced amongst us unless the usual intercourse be interdicted.

I have therefore, in pursuance of the advice of the said commissioners of health, issued this PROCLAMATION—hereby prohibiting the entrance into the city of Baltimore, or within three miles thereof, of all persons whomsoever, as well as of all baggage or other goods, which have come from the said city of New York until they shall have been at least fifteen days therefrom excepting only the public mail and such persons or things as the commissioners of health may admit by a special license in consequence of no circumstance appearing to them whereby the health of the city is endangered. And in addition to the prohibitions contained in a Proclamation issued by me, on the sixth day of September instant, interdicting the usual intercourse with the city of Philadelphia—the inhabitants of this city and the precincts thereof, are hereby expressly enjoined not to entertain, receive, or admit any person or persons into their houses who may have arrived here from either the city of Philadelphia or New York, unless he, she, or they, shall have previously obtained a special license as aforesaid.

This PROCLAMATION to remain in force until publicly revoked by me, of which all persons concerned are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly, under the penalty of Three Hundred Dollars for every offence, one half to the informer, and the other half for the use of the city.

Given under my hand and the corporate seal of the city of Baltimore, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and five.

French Night School.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but as to promise to do wonders in the half of my pupils—I have no need, it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation, the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies & Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years; I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

1000 Dollars Reward.
ON Saturday evening, between dark and ten o'clock, the Office of Discount and Deposit, established in this city, was forcibly opened by thieves, and a Sum of Money in paper and specie, chiefly small change, contained in a small wrought Iron Chest, was stolen therefrom. The villains who perpetrated this daring robbery, were not able to succeed, although they made the most violent attempts to penetrate the vault; all they effected was to bear off the Iron Chest above mentioned, and its contents. Amongst other bank-notes therein, was a parcel of old faced notes, two of which were for 500 dollars each, of this office; the indentments on them entirely filled their backs. The said notes are generally much defaced, ragged, and scarcely fit for circulation.—About the hour this act was committed, a person was seen with an iron chest in a wheel-barrow, passing over Griffith's bridge. There is no doubt but several villains were engaged in the atrocious robbery.—The above reward will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring them to conviction; and should one of the accomplices engaged therein make a discovery, so that the rest be convicted of the fact, he shall receive the above reward, and interest made with the governor of this state, to obtain for him a full and free pardon.

15 Hundred Dollars Reward.
YESTERDAY about 11 o'clock, in the forenoon, Mr. John Peter, an officer of the bank of Columbia, was stopped on horseback, on the road between this town and Alexandria, and within about two miles of the latter place, by some unknown villain, shot through the body with a pistol, and robbed of a sum of money in his possession, belonging to this institution, which he was taking to Alexandria, for the purpose of exchanging with the banks there.
 The whole sum taken amounted to eighteen thousand one hundred and fourteen dollars and sixty five cents, made up in several packages, among which were
 1 post note of the Bank of Virginia, for 800 dolls
 1 do. of the bank of Alexandria for 500
 1 do. of the same for 500
 1 do. of the same for 450
 1 do. of the Bank of Potomac, No. 117, in favor of Jos. Riddle, and by him endorsed in Washington Bowie, and by W. B. endorsed to Blank, dated 6th July, 1805, for 149 dollars, 65 cents.
 A check of the Union Bank, on the bank of Alexandria, drawn by R. Higginbotham, cashier, in favor of Greenham and Devereux, by them endorsed, and by Benjamin Stoddert, and C. Smith, teller.
 There were also a parcel of post notes of the bank of Alexandria for 160 dollars, and for 50 dollars each. The remainder was in current notes, principally of the banks of Alexandria and Potomac, and some few of the bank of Virginia, of different sizes and denominations.
 As the ATTACK was SUDDEN, and the WOUND received of a nature to deprive Mr. Peter instantly of his senses, tho' it is now hoped he will recover, the description obtained may not be very accurate. As far as we are informed, the man who perpetrated the act is of middle stature, good countenance, and had a genteel appearance. He had on a dark blue or black coat, nankeen pantaloons, shoes, and a black hat. He was on foot and alone at the time, but may have had accomplices concealed, and will probably change his clothes.
 Five Hundred Dollars will be given to any person or persons who will detect and bring to conviction the robber; and One Thousand Dollars additional for the recovery of the whole of the money, or in proportion for any smaller sum recovered. Should there be accomplices, and one of them make a discovery, so that it leads to a conviction of the robber, or to the recovery of the money, he shall receive the above reward, and interest will be made to obtain his pardon.

From the above Scheme, it appears that there are not two tickets to a prize, and that the prizes are to be paid without deduction. The advantages offered to adventurers, and the object to which the money is principally to be applied, the managers hope will produce such a speedy sale of the tickets as may enable them to commence the drawing at an early day. All prizes will be paid within sixty days from the completion of the drawing, and such as may not be demanded within twelve months after, will be considered as generous donations to the objects of the lottery. Bond has been given to the amount of 10000 dollars, to the mayor and city council, for the faithful performance of its conditions. Tickets may be had of the managers, and of such other persons as they may appoint, and prizes in the Cathedral Lottery will be repaid in payment.
