By several arrivals yesterday, we were favored with Dutch papers to the 1st, French papers to the 5th, London papers to the 8th, and Liverpool, to the 9th September—several days later than before received. They contain the appearance at least, of highly interesting intelligence.
WAR.—A long and bloody War was on the point of commencing between France, assisted perhaps, by Prussia and Bavaria, on one side; and Russia and Austria, backed by Great Britain and aided by Sweden, on the other. This event was placed beyond doubt.
Two Russian armies were, it was confidently said, on the march for Germany; and Austrian officers had actually been dispatched to conduct them. The Russian forces at Corfu were ready for immediate action.
The accounts from Austria are not explicit.
One day they talk of peace, and negotiation; but on the next present us with whole columns of accounts of marching armies—new formed camps—the most efficient preparations for instant war; advance of vast bodies of veteran troops to the very frontiers of France and Italy.
There are reports, that hostilities had commenced in Suabia, and that Venice had been taken by the French. Neither of these do we credit. Time had not been given the French to reach Suabia, or Venice. We doubt not, however, that these possessions of the Emperor of Germany, will experience the first effects of the new war.
New expeditions were fitting out in England; and the expectations of invasion were no more.
No naval affair, of consequence, had taken place; and the blockades of Brest and Cadiz, was continued. The English had been extrem-ly fortunate in the arrival of their colonial fleets.
The expedition at Malta, under Sir James Craig, was expected to sail shortly, with 2000 of the garrison; probably to join the Russians at Corfu, to act against the French in Italy.
VIENNA, Aug. 12, 1865.
We learn that government has given orders for marching 15,000 men to reinforce the troops in the Tyrol.—They are composed of veteran infantry and hussars. The Archduke John is to command in Tyrol, with Gen. Mack, for his second.
The troops destined for the camp of Badwein, are on the march—to which the regiments in Bohemia are to be united. Three other camps are forming, one near Graz; another near Luzemburg; and a third near Lantz.
[Monitor.]
Aug. 14.—On the 13th inst. the levy of recruits commenced here, and in all the hereditary dominions of the Emperor, with great activity.—The movements of troops are also continuing.
Aug. 15.—Notwithstanding all the appearances of an approaching rupture, many people are of opinion, that war will not take place. But that more probably a Congress will be held.
If, however, it is very likely that the whole army will be placed on the war establishment, by the 1st of September. Moreover, it is positively asserted, that several battalions of the frontier troops are already on their march to Italy, pursuant to orders; and that 50,000 Russian troops are already on the Austrian frontiers. A great military promotion is also spoken of, in which a Field Marshal, some Generals, and Major-Generals, will be appointed.
On the 13th inst. a train of 162 pieces of cannon, with the necessary ammunition, left Vienna for Italy; and the road from Vienna to Baden is so covered with troops, that travellers can hardly pass that way.
On the 20th of this month, the Archduke Charles will set out on his journey to Italy.
The archduke has ordered, that in future, in time of war, the officers of foot, from the captain down to ensign, both included, shall not be permitted to have any horses with them. Their camp equipage must consist of no more than two uniforms, six shirts, two pair of boots, six pocket handkerchiefs, and two cravats. By this regulation, the officers will save much necessary expense, and the conveyance of the baggage by land carriage will be much more convenient.
They write from Milan, the 20th July, as follows:—“The French troops in Italy have been in constant motion for this month past; and they assemble, in great numbers, on the Austrian frontiers, especially on the river Chiese, where, near Mount Chiara, an army of 50,000 men, is already assembled; the destination of which is not yet known. The fortification of Turin and Mantua are also placed in the strongest state of defence.” Aug. 17.—Switzerland demands the protection of Austria; and has sent deputies to Vienna, for that purpose; but no answer has been given them.
General Strauch and Weissenwolf have proceeded to Gallicia to guide the march of the Russian troops.
Amidst preparations for war, there are still hopes of peace. It is said Bonaparte had yielded; but this is not believed; as it is not agreeable to his character to yield; and affairs are so entangled that it would be difficult for him to give way. It is more generally thought that he will risk every thing—if hostilities do not commence this year, they will certainly begin in the spring.
SALTZBURG (Bavaria) Aug. 14.
All the troops quartered near the Turkish frontier are under orders. The Austrians are moving towards the Inn and the Tyrol; Besides the 12,000 men at Brannau, a considerable force has proceeded towards Sardung.
[Monitor.]
MUNICH, (Bavaria) Aug. 15.
A general uneasiness pervades the public mind. The armaments of Austria are a sufficient proof that she is determined on war, and the immense bodies of troops which she is marching towards the Inn, indicate an intention on her part to take possession of Bavaria, as the first operation. The Austrian Minister has hinted that the measure would take place. In consequence, many persons expect every moment to see the Austrians marching against Munich; and the Elector of Bavaria finds himself constrained to take measures of precaution for his States, and his personal safety.—[Monitor.] INSBRUCK, (Tyrol) Aug. 12.
All the troops of the Monarchy are on the march. Various camps are forming.
Prince Charles has purchased the horses for his suite.—The Archduke John sets out in 20 days.—[Monitor.]
FRANKFORT, Aug. 19.
The German papers announce, that the Elector of Bavaria has called a large army, and train, on the frontiers of Austria; and is determined to abandon his neutrality, and join France and Prussia—whose interests are inseparable.

BOSTON, October 25.

EUROPEAN NEWS.
The general attention seems, at the present moment, to be fearfully directed to the grand question: Shall the continent continue at peace, or not?—The answer to this question will depend, in a great measure, upon the system which the court of Vienna may pursue. They who fear that peace will not be preserved, and their opinion upon the continuance of the preparations for war, which are going on with greater activity than ever, at the camp at Pettau, in Stiria, is already complete, and another is forming in the vicinity of Crocow; in the Tyrol they are employed very actively in strengthening several military posts, and the levy of sharp shooters is organizing again, and provided with arms. On the 8th instant a company of cannoneers marched for that province, another company for Venice, and a third for Upper Austria; at the same time orders have been sent to general count Klenau, to march immediately with his corps to Budweis, in Bohemia, there to await further orders; this corps is said to consist of thirteen regiments of infantry, and two of cavalry.
RATISBON, (Bavaria) Aug. 20.
A general consternation prevails here.
The Russian troops are said to be on their march towards Hungary and Bohemia, menacing us as much as France. They inspire confidence in the Russians, whose troops are about invading Bavaria, and even Switzerland. All these movements announce that Southern Germany approaches to the greatest misfortunes.
[Monitor.]
AUGSBURG, Aug. 19.
It is stated, that the King of Prussia is assembling troops in Franconia, in Anspach and Baruth, to support the neutrality which the Princes of the South of Germany are determined to maintain, in case Austria goes to war. A treaty between Prussia and Bavaria for this object is talked of.

A large body of men are to be stationed in the environs of Linz. The court of Vienna are taking very strong measures for the safety of the capital of the empire.
The last letters from Venice state the amount of the garrison there at 10,000 men. The greatest activity is using in fortifying the island of St. George. Orders have been issued to repair, as speedily as possible, all the forts and places in the Venetian territories, as well as those which cover the Venetian passes in the Tyrol and Carniola. The troops in Austrian Italy, as well as the line of post along the Adige, has been reinforced. At the same time we hear that the Austrians in the Brigshaw have been ordered to march to the Venetians.

STUTTGARD, August 25.
The Elector of Bavaria, it is said, will with his family remove to Wurtzburg, in Franconia.
BERLIN, July 20.
The Baron de Hardenburg, in his note to M. Laforet, the French minister, expresses the deep regret of his Prussian majesty at the return of the passports by M. Novoziltzoff;—and at the same time observes, that the union of the Ligurian Republic (Genoa) with France, was an event much unexpected.

PETERSBURG, August 15.
M. De Novoziltzoff returned to this capital on the 4th instant. The troops are arriving on all sides. Count de Bux-haven, general of infantry, and military governor of Riga, and lieutenant general Essen, are already arrived. General Beninggus is daily expected. Baron de Winztingrade is also on his return from Vienna.
The greatest warlike preparations are making in all parts of the Russian empire.
A messenger left this city yesterday for England, who, it is reported, is the bearer of the treaty concluded between Russia, Sweden, and England. It is also said, that the Prussian minister will leave this capital to day or to-morrow.
It is said that our troops will shortly march into the Austrian territories, particularly Gallicia and Silesia in the neighbourhood of Jagerndorf, & Treppaur.—There is a report too of an embarkation of troops for Swedish Pomerania, and likewise troops for another destination.

NEW-YORK, October 27.
Extract of a letter from an American gentleman of intelligence and respectability at Cadiz.
I can from my own knowledge vouch for the truth of the inclosed memorial, and I think it should be taken up in such a public manner by all the merchants in the United States, as should convince the government that their interests in the instance complained of is most seriously neglected.
THE MEMORIAL.
Recommendation to the Merchants of the United States trading to the Mediterranean.
WHEREAS the trade of the United States to the Mediterranean, is one of the most valuable of the said states, and has been during the last, and more particularly during the present war, much molested by an infamous set of privateers fitted out in the ports of Spain, whose general rendezvous has been and continues to be the Port of Algeiras, before which port every vessel bound to the Mediterranean must necessarily pass, and whereas it appears there is no Consul or Agent for the United States, nor has there been for several years past at Algeiras, except a Spaniard nominated by Mr. John Cravine of Gibraltar (within a few weeks), and that the said port being within the jurisdiction of the Consul of Cadiz, which office is held by a Spaniard now residing at Madrid, & who has not resided for many years past within 50 miles of his Consulate, and that the interests and honor of the United States and its Citizens are totally neglected and its vessels are daily captured and carried into the ports of Algeiras, and the Captains or Seamen there engaged either to sign papers in a foreign language, which in many instances are made the grounds of their condemnation, or obliged to enter into compromises equally injurious both to the honor of the United States and the interests of the citizens, and whereas J. Izard, Consul General of the United States, at Cadiz and its dependencies, has been applied to, to appoint a Vice Consul at Algeiras, and he has either been unwilling so to do, or has been unable to get any person to serve under him, alledging that no person would consent to remain there without a fixed salary, which the Government have refused to allow to any Consul or Vice Consul, and whereas from the above stated facts, it clearly appears, that the interests of the United States and its citizens are totally abandoned to the mercy of a set of privateers-men, and that immense sums have been lost and continue daily to be brought in and condemned.

It is therefore strongly recommended to the citizens of the United States, engaged in trade to the Mediterranean to call a meeting in the Different Sea ports, and present a petition to Congress, claiming that protection which they conceive themselves and their property entitled to, and requesting that a respectable Citizen of the United States may be appointed to the Office of Consul General of Cadiz, and its dependencies, with an obligation of his residing at his post, and in case of no Citizen being willing from the local situation of Algeiras to remain there without a salary, that a salary may be allowed to the Vice Consul residing at the port of Algeiras.
Cadiz, Aug. 15, 1865.
Extract of a letter from Cadiz, dated September 10.

“The combined fleet of 53 sail of the line are sale in this port—still a few British ships keep up the blockade.”
OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH.
October 25, 1865.
The Board of Health have the satisfaction to announce to their fellow citizens, that, in their opinion, every reasonable cause of danger from malignant fever has ceased, and that they may return to their respective homes with every probability of perfect safety. The Board recommends, however, that precautionary measures be taken to ventilate their dwellings.
By order of the Board,
DE WITT CLINTON, President.
JAMES HARRIS, Secretary.

CHARLESTON, October 16.
Pursuant to appointment, a Funeral discourse was delivered yesterday in the Independent Church, in Archibald-street, by the Rev. Dr. Hollinshead, before the Cincinnati Society, the Revolution Society, the Officers of the Militia of Charleston, and a large number of citizens, on the death of the late Major General Moultrie.
The sermon, as was expected, was ably composed and eloquently delivered.—The character drawn of the deceased patriot was strictly just.—The eminent services he had rendered his country were displayed in glowing and energetic language; and the audience shewed, by their united approbation, that their feelings were highly gratified by the truly elegant manner in which the virtues of their lamented fellow citizen had been brought before them.

The British ship Northumberland, captain Gibbs, in attempting to enter the South Channel on Monday, got ashore on the North Breaker, and is filged. The crew left the ship with five feet water in the hold, and came up to town on Monday night.
The Northumberland sailed from Jamaica with the last homeward bound fleet of merchantmen; but having sprung a leak, left the convoy. She was a fine ship, of 423 tons burthen; had a cargo of 527 hogsheds and 57 tierces sugar, 48 puncheons rum, 53 cases and 183 bags coffee, 112 bags pimento, 30 bales cotton, and 47 tons logwood—a very trifling proportion of which, it is supposed, will be saved.

SPARTA, (Geo.) October 5.
The deputation of the Creek Nation arrived in this place yesterday evening on their way to Washington city. They are accompanied by colonel Hawkins, the Superintendent of Indian Affairs, and Mr.
Timothy Barnard, interpreter. The embassy, we are informed, possess full powers to enter into a treaty with the United States for the disposal of the Ockmulgee fork.
A few days since, we are informed, a gentleman went into his field, on the south side of the Oconee River, to pull corn, & was bit by a Rattle Snake, which put an almost instantaneous period to his existence. Those who go in search of lands we would advise to be careful as it is said those reptiles abound in that country.
