This is to give Notice,
THAT the Subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court, for Baltimore county, letters of administration on the estate of ANTHONY FLETCHER, deceased; all persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the first day of August next; or otherwise, by law, be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this first day of March, eighteen hundred and six.
WILLIAM JOHNSON, Administrator.
March 3

To the Curious.
A LIVE
ELEPHANT
WILL be exhibited at Mr. James Fearon's, at the Horse market space, running past Mr. Dewitt's tavern, toward the Falls, until Saturday next, the 21st instant, from 9 o'clock in the morning until 9 at night.
The Elephant, not only from its being the largest and most sagacious animal in the world, but from the peculiar manner in which it takes its food and drink of every kind with its trunk, is acknowledged to be the greatest curiosity ever offered for public inspection.
The animal now exhibiting will draw the cork of a bottle with her trunk, and manage it in such a manner as to drink its contents; with many other proofs of extreme sagacity, surprising to the spectators.
She is between 5 and 6 years old, measures upwards of 15 feet from the end of her trunk to that of her tail, 10 feet round the body, and upwards of 6 feet in height.
Admittance 25 cents—Children, half price.
March 19

30 Dollars Reward.
WAS stolen from the subscriber on Friday the 20th inst. a Bank Note of $100, on the Office of Discount and Deposit in Savannah; the number of the note is not known, but it is very remarkable, it is cut through the letter O, in spelling one hundred, and has Geo. Robinson for an indorser, on the back. It is supposed to be stolen by some ignorant thief, who will strive to pass it in Baltimore. Any person or persons apprehending the same, and giving information to the subscriber, shall receive the reward.
NATHAN HORNER,
Federal Hill, Baltimore.
March 25

Ladies & gentlemen of Baltimore
THE proprietor of the DROMEDARIES, returns his thanks to the ladies and gentlemen of Baltimore, for the flattering encouragement he has received since opening his exhibition; and begs leave to acquaint them he means to leave this city on the 28th of this month. The elder one is the largest animal ever exhibited in this country; she measures 7 feet high, 10 feet round the body, and is 12 feet 6 inches long—the neck is 4 feet long—the younger one is but 19 months old, and is 5 feet high, 9 feet long; covered with wool like a sheep, and they are so docile that a child may play with them without the least danger. As they have been so often advertised in two daily papers, it is needless to say any thing further about them. Those who wish to see these wonderful animals, will please to call at No. 36, Marsh Market, opposite the lower Market.
Admittance 25 cents—Children half price.
March 21

To the Voters
Of the City and County of Baltimore.
GENTLEMEN,
BEING solicited by many friends, both in the city and county, to offer myself a candidate for the Office of SHERIFF. I have taken the liberty of soliciting your suffrages at the ensuing election, as I conceive myself qualified (from long experience as assistant to the present and two preceding sheriffs) to discharge the important duties attached to that office.—My engagements will continue to prevent a personal application to each individual, whose approbation I am ambitious to possess; but if correctness, diligence, and every degree of humanity, consistent with the interest due to an indulgent public, are becoming requisites.—I hope the want of a personal interview will be no material objection against me.
Public's humble servant,
JOHN HUNTER.
