From the above Scheme, it appears that there are not two blanks to a prize; and that the prizes are to be paid without deduction. The advantages offered to adventurers, and the object to which the money is principally to be applied, the managers hope will produce such a speedy sale of the tickets as may enable them to commence the drawing at an early day. All prizes will be paid within sixty days from the completion of the drawing; and such as may not be demanded within twelve months after, will be considered as generous donations to the objects of the lottery. Bond has been given to the amount of 10000 dollars to the mayor and city council, for the faithful performance of its conditions. Tickets may be had of the managers, and of such other persons as they may appoint; and prizes in the Cathedral Lottery will be received in payment. Prizes in the Cathedral and Second Presbyterian Lottery, will be taken in payment for Tickets. MANAGERS.

Med. Doctor, Fellow of the Medical Society of Maryland. BORN of French parents in the city of Bremen, I was from my earliest childhood destined to the study of Physic. After having regularly graduated in the schools there, I visited several universities to perfect myself in my intended profession, and finally admitted as a physician by the Medical Faculty of Erlang. After which, I resided for twenty years in Bremen, and was appointed director of the Public Dispensary. I had resolved to visit America: I accompanied Captain Vickers to this city as a medical attendant, and proposed to proceed to Charleston—the friendly reception I have met with here, the flattering encouragement I have already experienced induce me to fix my abode in Baltimore—I therefore take this method of making known my intention, and of assuring my friends, that it shall be my incessant endeavor by my application and punctuality to merit continuance of their esteem, and to obtain confidence of the public, especially in critical diseases, which I have more peculiarly made the object of my study.
